Nevada County Fairgrounds

A big thank you to our wonderful outing hosts, Howie and Gail Dahl, and co-hosts Camran and Brenda Nassiri, for organizing such a memorable event! Fifty campers gathered at the Nevada County Fairgrounds in May for a weekend full of fun, friendship, and exploration.

We kicked things off Thursday evening with a lively meet-and-greet, delicious food, and a spirited game of Right, Left, Center that had everyone laughing and mingling.

Friday morning began on a sweet note with mimosas and donuts in the clubhouse—definitely a fun way to start the day! The group then headed out to tour a local alpaca farm, where we enjoyed a hands-on look at life on the farm and learned from the knowledgeable owners. The afternoon offered free time to explore local shops, hike nearby trails, or enjoy a bite at one of the charming restaurants in Grass Valley or Nevada City.

Saturday brought even more energy as we gathered once again—this time for donuts and mimosas. Conversations buzzed as we shared stories from the day before. Later, we enjoyed a fascinating historical walking tour of Grass Valley, led by a local historian who brought the Gold Rush era to life with vivid details and insider knowledge.

The weekend wrapped up with a delicious catered Chicken and Tri-Tip BBQ dinner back at the clubhouse. It was a special treat to have Ray and Sharon Lopez join us all the way from Redding for the evening. As we shared highlights from our time together, a common theme emerged: the sense of connection and unity that made this outing so special.

Though we may have started the weekend as acquaintances, we left as friends, already looking forward to our next adventure. With so much to offer, this area definitely deserves a repeat visit!
