

REDDING TRAILDUSTERS AUGUST 2024 NEWSLETTER

WAGONMASTER REPORT:

Hello Traildusters. Southern Oregon RV Park outing was loads of fun. My first time visiting this park and was impressed with how nice it was. The weather was hot, however, looking at the temps in Redding it was still close to 10 degrees cooler. Visited the Ashland Elks Lodge for dinner and was not disappointed. Our brothers and sisters in Ashland treated us very well. If you haven't visited the lodge, you should as it is impressive. Construction of the building was completed in 1910 specifically for the Ashland Elks and from then to today has always been an Elks Lodge.

August will be at Klamath Camper Corral, September at Casa de Fruita, October is Ramblin Redwoods, and our last outing will be KOA Journey for Thanksgiving. The year will wrap up with the Christmas Dinner Dance at the lodge. Dates for our outings and events are listed on our website: reddingtraildusters.com.

Randy Worthington, Wagonmaster

Susan Sechrist has been diagnosed with cancer. As she said, "this is a bumpy road". We wish her strength as she goes through this journey.

Sammy Emery had a knee replacement on the 23rd.

Ricchard Bacciarini is slowly recovering from the car accident that crushed the heel of his foot.

So happy that Wendy Masson is done with chemotherapy.

Our old wonderful members, Linda and Greg Rodrigues are going through some hard times. Greg is awaiting his 4th heart surgery to repair his sternum which has never healed. Linda fell and broke all 3 fingers and dislocated her index finger. She will be having PT for the next 6 months.

Southern Oregon Outing

Fun was had by everyone at the Southern Oregon RV Park with 14 rigs attending this outing. We started with finger foods Thursday evening inside the air conditioned check-in building. Some folks chose Friday and others chose Saturday to explore the old town of Jacksonville and the historical trolley tour. There was wine tasting, lavender farms with great music along with food and drinks, and shopping in Ashland. The Ashland Elks Lodge served a great dinner for us on Friday night along with a special tour of the lodge. It is absolutely beautiful! This was followed by a fun game of Left-Right-Center. Congratulations to Connie Brown, the big winner!! Beginner's luck? We shall see! On Saturday there were 9 people who attended the Jet Boat tour with a meal on the island. Everyone got soaked, but it was definitely hot enough for that! Others chose that day to head up to Seven Feathers to try their luck there. We were greeted Sunday morning with a beautiful rainbow as we began preparing for our trip home. It was a fun time for all of us.
