Casa de Fruita Outing September 18-22, 2024

Nine rigs adventured south to the Casa de Fruita RV Park in San Benito County. Traveling days were windless with the local temperatures at the park in the "perfect" range. After a kickoff dinner featuring Josh Weggeland's famous chili, along with other dishes added by club members, we settled into sightseeing in the local area. Some highlights were Monterey and Big Sur along with visits to local wineries and breweries. Most of us ended up at a great Mexican restaurant Thursday night for dinner in San Juan Bautista. Friday started out with the ladies making head wreaths for the Renaissance festival to be held on site Saturday. After that, more exploring of the local sites, then returning to the RV park and their wonderful club house for a group dinner and two rounds of Left Right Center. Saturday was all about the Northern California Renaissance Festival, next door to our RV campsites. Lots of entertainment and revelry to had by all. Pictures document the experience. Sunday found us traveling back North to home.
