

REDDING TRAILDUSTERS NOVEMBER 2024 NEWSLETTER

WAGONMASTER REPORT:

It's the time of year for our club when the nominating committee reaches out to membership asking for nominations for the board. These are voluntary positions with a term of one year. I consider it a privilege to have served on the board as Assistant Trail Boss, Trail Boss, and this year as Wagonmaster. The support I have received from my lovely wife, Rose, as well as many other club members has been wonderful and greatly appreciated.

Now it is time for others to step up and serve. Our club functions only when members volunteer to participate by serving on the board, in appointed positions, as hosts, and as co-hosts. Personally, I was nervous about accepting the position's that I did. However, with the advice, help, and support I received from the many members that had previously held the positions, my nervousness quickly abated. My personal experience serving on the board, as host, and co-host has been gratifying and fun. So, shake off that nervous reticence and jump in, you will find it is gratifying and fun as well.

November 7th through 10th will be KOA Journey for our Thanksgiving outing. The year will wrap up with the Christmas Dinner Dance at the lodge. Tickets are on sale now at the lodge bar & office, and through Jeanie, our treasurer. You can always check out dates for our outings and events on our website: reddingtraildusters.com.

Randy Worthington, Wagonmaster

SUNSHINE REPORT

This is such a profound poem, that I wanted to share it with everyone.

DASH

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend. He referred to the dates on the tombstone from the beginning...to the end. He noted that first came the date of birth and spoke the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years. For that dash represents all the time that they spent alive on earth. And now only those who loved them know what that little line is worth. For it matters not, how much we own, the cars...the house...the cash. What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash. So, think about this long and hard. Are there things you'd like to change? For you never know how much time is left that can still be rearranged. If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real and always try to understand the way other people feel. And be less quick to anger and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before. If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile, remembering that this special dash might only last a little while. So, when your eulogy is being read, with your life's actions to rehash...would you be proud of the things they say about how you spent YOUR dash? Dedicated to : Glen Owen, Peggy Laird, Pete Peters, Anita Erwin, Susan Sechrist, Jim Bogue.

Ramblin Redwoods Outing

I'm writing this report while attending the Ramblin Redwoods outing. The weather was great for most of the trip until late Friday night when it started raining. Despite this bit of wet weather, the group had a great time. Thursdays fishing trip was a success with all eight of us limiting out on rock fish and one crab each. Friday morning the golfers made their pilgrimage to Del Norte Golf Club. Later that evening we made our way for a Prime Rib dinner at the Brookings Elks Lodge, which was delicious. Our brothers and sisters at the Brookings Elks really did a fantastic job catering to our group of 40+ diners. Afterwards, many of us hung out in the lodge bar area listening to music, playing pool & darts, and socializing amongst ourselves and fellow local Elk members. Today, Saturday, everyone is on their own for activities and dinner. The rain has let up allowing us to start taking down tables and pop-ups. Tomorrow, we head home to what appears to be milder weather than what we left prior to this trip.
