

REDDING TRAILDUSTERS DECEMBER 2024 NEWSLETTER

WAGONMASTER REPORT:

As this year draws to a close, I ask Traildusters and Redding Elks Lodge members to reflect on the happier days of the past months, let go of the less desirable moments, count our blessings, and remember the family and friends we have lost.

It has been a challenging yet exciting year for me. I wish to thank my wife Rose, and Trailduster Board members Mike Tisdale, Teresa Johnson, Jeanne Michelson, Brenda Becker, Sharon Lopez, and Diana Corrillo for all their support and guidance during my time as Wagonmaster. I also wish to thank and acknowledge the contributions of those who chaired the many positions within our group, as well as all the hosts and co-hosts who made the outings successful. The efforts of all these volunteers make it possible for our members to come together for recreation, fellowship, and to promote goodwill, as well as sharing travel experiences.

Traildusters remember to come to our next general meeting on December 3rd, we will be voting for our 2025 board members. Come and make sure you have a say in who directs our club next year.

We have just concluded the last outing of 2024 and look forward to this year's Christmas Dinner and Dance on Friday, December 6th.

You can always check out dates for our outings and events on our website: reddingtraildusters.com.

Randy Worthington, Wagonmaster

SUNSHINE REPORT

Rudy Carver and the Pressure Washer had a bit of a tangle. The Pressure Washer prevailed unfortunately and cut his foot. Needless to say, it resulted in a hospital stay and strong antibiotics, but he is back to work and doing better. Mark Stockman in the early part of November fell landing on a rock. Thinking that he only bruised ribs he didn't seek medical attention. It was later in the week that they discovered he had injured his liver and his kidneys had shut down. He has been in the hospital for 2 weeks on dialysis and is hoping to come home before Thanksgiving. It's knee replacement time and Jan Romero was on the list. She had surgery Nov. 18th. She is home and on the road to recovery.
