

REDDING TRAILDUSTERS APRIL 2024 NEWSLETTER

Greetings Traildusters

Reports regarding the Berry Creek outing found the event quite enjoyable. Thank you hosts Jaime & Jan Romero and co-hosts Rudy & Anita Carver for organizing a fun outing. April, we ascend to Paradise. Hosts Larry & Cindy Wondercheck with Co-hosts Curt & Jill Wyatt have arranged a great stay at the Paradise Elks Lodge. Our Trail Boss, Mike Tisdale has been diligently working to make sure that all our outing venues are set and ready for our members to arrive. There is a venue change to the October outing. Redwood Meadows in Hiouchi has been moved to Ramblin Redwoods in Crescent City. This change was made because Redwood Meadows is not accepting group reservations. Teresa Johnson, Assistant Trail Boss, is busy arranging next year's outings with some new locations we haven't visited in the past. Thank you, Mike and Teresa, for all your hard work.

Planning for the Chili Cook-off is ongoing. The theme for the cook-off is 4077 M.A.S.H. I wonder if anyone is brave enough to dress up as Klinger. Otherwise, camo, fatigues, or medical attire will be the dress code for this outing. The next planning meeting for the cook-off will be April 2nd at 5:30pm before the general meeting. Those of you who have expressed interest in helping, please come to the planning meeting.

Randy Worthington, Wagonmaster

Sunshine Report

According to Jack McAuliffe, Heleen has made a miraculous recovery from spinal meningitis. Great news. Some people think that going through 1 knee replacement is enough, however yours truly is going for the 2nd knee replacement on April 8th. Not only will I have 2 bionic knees, but I'll have matching scars. It always so sad to hear a Doctor say, "There isn't anything we can do medically". This is the news that Bruce Erwin was given this past week concerning his wonderful wife, Anita. She has been persevering for the last 3 years, dealing with chronic health issues. She is now on comfort care.
