

REDDING TRAILDUSTERS MAY 2024 NEWSLETTER

Greetings fellow Reading Trailersdusters RV Club members. So far this year the events have been very successful. Valentines' day dinner/dance and Berry Creek outing attendees raved how much they enjoyed them. April's outing in Paradise was fun even though the weather was not ideal. Our fellow Elks of the Paradise lodge were very accommodating to our group. Thank you to the hosts Larry & Cindy Wondercheck and co-hosts Curt Rhyne & Jill Wyatt for your efforts. No Trailduster outing is scheduled for May due to unavailability of an affordable venue. However, planning for the Chili Cook-off is proceeding at full speed. We can still use volunteers for Rosies Bar, Sanitation, and Chili/Salsa judging. There are still sites left in the chili circle for chili cooks and salsa makers. There are still some sites available outside the circle as well. The last day to sign-up will be Tuesday, May 7th prior to the general meeting. Don't snooze or you will lose out on going to the cook-off. Remember the theme this year is 4077 M*A*S*H, so wear your fatigues and camo.

Sunshine Report

On April 9th, John Severson was participating in a Patriot Guard motorcycle event. Unfortunately, there was an accident and John and many other riders were injured. John suffered multiple broken ribs and a punctured lung. He currently is recovering at home. We wish him a speedy recovery.

At our last meeting, Larry Kirkland led us in a healing prayer for Wendy Masson. As many of you know she is dealing with breast cancer. Presently she has chemotherapy every 21 days.

starting on April 24. In talking with her, she is optimistic and eager to have these treatments completed. Keep her in your thoughts and prayers.

Yours truly is making great progress in recovering from a total knee replacement.

PARADISE outing is in the books. 16 rigs 29 folks. We were kind of like working for the post office. We had sun, wind, and some rain and so we still went out and had a good time. Tim Pool rounded up the golfers and went to Table Mountain in Oroville to tee it up. We had a tour and lunch at the Sierra Nevada Brewery and a lot of on your own exploring. My goal was to support the Paradise Lodge as much as possible and we were successful. They have a beautiful new lodge and everyone was extremely friendly. We ate a lot of meals and had a cocktail or two with our new friends. Connie Strohmayer will be getting a 1099 for her LRC victory. Great way for a lot of us to start the RV season. Finally hats off and take a bow Curt Rhynes, and Jill Wyatt for hosting with Cindy and me. Great job. Looking forward to our next outing.

Larry, Cindy, Curt, and Jill.

Thank you so much for the wonderful pictures.
