

ON MY PILLOW

You've heard it all before
 Every time you walk the floor
 All the guys jump up
 To break the ice
 With your face I see
 You crave a fresh diplomacy
 A lack of arrogance
 Should fit your type

It's not a test you need to take
 Rest your head on my pillow
 It's not a quest you need to make
 Rest your head on my pillow
 You'll be impressed
 You'll be amazed
 All night long
 Just rest your head on my pillow

You've seen it all before
 Every time you touch the door
 All the boys pop up
 To roll the dice
 As a courtesy
 You need a man's philosophy
 Two parts of tenderness
 Three parts of spice

It's not a test you need to take
 Rest your head on my pillow
 It's not a quest you need to make
 Rest your head on my pillow
 You'll be impressed
 You'll be amazed
 All night long
 Just rest your head on my pillow

Always be discrete
 Love unfolds in many ways
 Sweep you off your feet
 I can say
 Only when complete
 It should take your breath away
 Leave you craving for some more
 Don't let your heart get in the way

In those curves I see
 You were born a prodigy
 Your lines so feminine
 Your shape divine
 The way you fill that dress
 It's more than fair that you request
 A glass of faith
 To sip by candlelight

It's not a test you need to take
 It's not a quest you need to make
 You'll be impressed
 You'll be amazed

It's not a test you need to take
 It's not a quest you need to make
 You'll be impressed
 You'll be amazed
 Just rest your head on my pillow
 On my pillow

On my pillow
 On my pillow

IT'S OVER

You stare in my direction
 With tension in your eyes
 The lack of your affection
 Increases with the night

In some ways I've known for days
 I try so hard to understand
 That love must come in waves
 It hurts so much to say

It's over now
 You're gone forever
 I'm all alone
 You won't be coming home

I saw you at the corner
 The sunlight in your eyes
 Your hand it held another
 Your gift of love not mine

The old days seem so far away
 I try so hard to understand
 That love must come in waves

It's over now
 You're gone forever
 I'm all alone
 You won't be coming home
 Anymore

My slow ways or how I behave
 I try so hard to understand
 That love must come in waves

It's over now
 You're gone forever
 I'm all alone
 Anymore

You won't be coming home
 Anymore

I'VE GOT THE MOVES

We'll make the grade
 With the words I say
 That lift you like
 No other

Now don't hold back
 There won't be traps
 To interfere
 With my love

Anybody worth their weight
 Can see the price you've paid
 Here's my hand
 Let's take that leap of faith
 Together

I've got the moves
 That'll keep you off of lonely street
 I've got the moves
 To tickle that frown
 I've got the moves

Like your favorite song with the perfect beat
 I've got the moves
 To tickle that frown

Well it's often said
 That chivalry is dead
 Well I'm here to voice
 The other

I'll aim with truth
 I'll only spend my nights with you
 And reinforce
 All my love

Anybody worth their weight
 Here's my hand
 Together

I've got the moves
 That'll keep you off of lonely street
 I've got the moves
 To tickle that frown
 I've got the moves
 perfect beat
 I've got the moves
 To tickle that frown

Cause I know that you're ripe for the taking
 But I've never liked bitter company
 So you better take my hand
 We'll move to the promised land
 Just agree with what I say
 Believe in all that I crave
 Cause baby

I've got the moves
 That'll keep you off of lonely street
 I've got the moves
 To tickle that frown
 I've got the moves
 perfect beat
 I've got the moves
 To tickle that frown
 That frown
 To tickle that frown
 Hey babe well I've got the moves

IT'S NOT ENOUGH

I know that I love you
 You're the girl of my dreams
 I'll show you how I can give you anything
 I could gather a sunrise
 And place it in your hands
 Just to prove I'm no ordinary man
 You tell our fortune with your eyes
 What a marvelous surprise

I will ferry you through paradise
 Between the drops of rain
 I will lift you to the heavens
 So you can touch the Milky Way
 I will comfort you at night
 Tell you my life I'll give you twice

But it's not enough
 No no, No no, It's not enough
 It's not enough

No no, No no, It's not enough

I'm not wealthy or famous
 But if I were a king
 I would bow then give you anything
 All the snow on the mountains
 That melts into the sea
 Every day my love for you runs out of me
 But I restore it with your smiles I'll collect them for a while

I will ferry you through paradise
 Between the drops of rain
 I will lift you to the heavens
 So you can touch the Milky Way
 Tell you my life I'll give you twice

But it's not enough
 No no, No no, It's not enough
 It's not enough
 It's not enough
 It's not enough
 No no

It will never be enough for me
 I'll love you for eternity
 Block your pain
 Take the blame Shield you from those walks of shame
 If you ever need a warm embrace
 I'll be there
 If you ever need a friendly face
 I'll be there
 If you ever need a warm embrace
 I'll be there
 If you ever need a friendly face
 I'm always there

KNOCK ME DOWN

I'm in a pinch
 I need a pro's attention
 Got confused
 Gave the wrong extension
 Crossed the lines
 Now there's no time
 To call the high command

I want to pout
 But should I even bother
 I missed the days
 Just before I saw her
 All was fine
 I had peace of mind
 And everything in hand

You tell me
 You tell me I'm your kind of man Then you share a little piece of your
 heart
 You knock me down again
 You tell me
 You tell me I'm your kind of man
 heart
 You knock me down again
 I'm trying
 I'm trying hard to understand

I want to shout

But I can't even swallow
Hand at my chest
It's feeling kind of hollow
The bottom line
I'm not inclined
To verbalize her plan

This painted scene
Shows valleys full of sorrow
The full collapse of bridges always borrowed
To span the need of thoughtless deeds
As wide as they are sad

You tell me
You tell me I'm your kind of man
heart
You knock me down again
You tell me
You tell me I'm your kind of man
heart
You knock me down again
I'm trying

It suddenly occurs to me
I feel like I'm adrift at sea Like a bottle and a note in search of land
I'll tip my hat to all I know
I'll catch a breeze for points unknown
I'm lost to the abyss
A broken man

You tell me
You tell me I'm your kind of man
heart
You knock me down again

You tell me
You tell me I'm your kind of man
heart
You knock me down again
I'm trying

Why you share a little piece of your
heart
Share it with another man
heart
Share it with another man
heart
You knock me down again

SEPARATE WAYS

There are moments in our lives we must remember
While the heart provides a gate to forget
In this battle most shun pain and favor pleasure
Some spin the wheel of no regrets

I'm not sure if that's the way to play it I cast a shadow filled with tears that never shines
But it provides me with the space I need for healing

From the timely words you spoke that final night

I see things through your eyes
You're always on my mind
But then I hear you say
You know we have to go our
separate ways
I'm tired and I'm crying
From leaving you behind
separate ways

I've embraced our time together
To claim some days aren't tough would be a lie
Your lessons from the heart are what I treasure
A diagram to build a better life

No one lives forever
But there's a part of me I know will never die
It surrounds me like a shield from stormy weather
Created by a flame from deep inside

I see things through your eyes
You're always on my mind
But then I hear you say
separate ways
I'm tired and I'm crying
From leaving you behind
separate ways

Separate ways
Separate ways

I'm not prepared to face the pain
Every time I hear your name
Excuse me but it's happening again

I see things through your eyes
You're always on my mind
But then I hear you say
separate ways
I'm tired and I'm crying
From leaving you behind
separate ways

I see things through your eyes
You're always on my mind
separate ways
Toss a shooting star Show me where you are
separate ways

I'LL PLAY SURRENDER

I really don't care what face you wear
The disconnect, the rosy stare
You never need to compromise Should I stand up straight or sit right down
I'll never hesitate to hit the ground
I'll gladly be your pawn for life

Anytime you want I'll jump

Even though you say you will then you don't
Anytime you want I'll play
Surrender
Call your bluff, invest my time
Even though you lead me on with your lies
Anytime you want I'll play
Surrender

There's no turning back, my mind's made up
I've sealed my fate, you're like a drug
Your abuse is hard to find
An unlikely pair, I'm proud to boast Climb aboard, I'll be your host Your fantasies I will provide

Anytime you want I'll jump
you don't
Anytime you want I'll play
Surrender
Call your bluff, invest my time
your lies
Surrender

Life is hard, too hard
When you're on your own
So so hard, it's hard
When you're all alone
Quite rooms, without you
Are not very demanding
Empty halls, their walls Echo with abandon

Anytime you want I'll jump
you don't
Anytime you want I'll play
Surrender
Call your bluff, invest my time
your lies
Surrender
Surrender

THE BEST DEFENSE

I guess it's time to stand alone
A little
Find a space outside the zone
A little
To over analyze
It's always been a fault of mine
My life, it needs repair

I guess it's time to pack my bag
A little
Find a map then take a stab
A little
To always criticize
It sure has been a fault of mine
My life, it needs repair

No matter where you are
The distance, whether near or far
The words ignite me like a spark
You always said

The best defense is love

I've been so blessed to even know
A little
Why take this quest out on the road
A little
To over analyze
My life, it's in repair

No matter where you are
The distance, whether near or far
The words ignite me like a spark
You always said
The best defense is

Love
Might bite a little
Love
Could split you down the middle
Save the memories
That make you smile in all degrees
Love
Might not be civil
Love
Could play you like a fiddle
Share the memories
That make you cry in all degrees

It's time to stand alone
A little
Find my space outside the zone
A little
What we had might still survive Let's hope the scars will heal with time
My life, it's in repair

No matter where you are
The distance, whether near or far
The words ignite me like a spark
You always said

No matter where you are
The distance, whether near or far
The words ignite me like a spark
You always said

I guess it's time to stand alone
A little
