Motion by Don Lenzendorf to accept bid from Fahrner Asphalt, 2nd by Dan Snyder, motion carried.

Appearance of Citizens: Ron Hartley, Mark Beutow, and Brian Reynolds present. Ron spoke about Mickle Stuckey expressing interest in working up a bid for the fire station. He works for Cousins Concrete. He also noted a representative from Tammy Baldwin's office will be in town Wednesday and will tour the fire station prior to the Johnson's small business presentation. Ron asked if there are any updates on building site and any discussion on a community meeting to provide updates. Tom informed he went to a county meeting and Kyle Kozelka told him there was no reason to be added to the agenda regarding the county land option because they were told we already have a building site. Tom was told we have a bad board who won't work with the fire department. Brian Reynolds noted he is not undermining the board at county meetings. General discussion regarding building location and how we move forward. Tom informed they are on the agenda for the next County Hwy Department meeting to discuss possible land purchase.

Motion to adjourn at 8:55 pm by Don Lenzendorf, 2nd by Dan Snyder, motion carried Julie Payne, Clerk
