

Guggenheim Securities Investment Banking Sophomore FOCUS Program Thursday, December 4 & Friday, December 5

Guggenheim Securities Investment Banking is pleased to offer second-year undergraduate students the opportunity to participate in our virtual Investment Banking Sophomore FOCUS program, taking place on December 4 and December 5.

The event will include an evening session on Thursday, December 4, and on Friday, December 5, participants will participate in daylong programming, including information sessions, educational panels and networking opportunities, designed to help them learn more about a career in investment banking at Guggenheim. Event participation includes a mentor pairing with one of our full-time bankers and a guaranteed in-person interview on January 15 for our 2027 Summer Analyst Program.

Candidate Profile

Students should demonstrate the following:

- a strong interest in finance and accounting;
- the ability to take ownership;
- creative thinking;
- strong communication skills and attention to detail; and
- leadership skills.

Guggenheim Securities is committed to hiring the best talent — hard workers with an entrepreneurial spirit who will thrive in an environment where initiative, creativity, maturity, and enthusiasm for learning are highly valued.

Eligibility

The Sophomore FOCUS Program is open to second-year undergraduate students, graduating in December 2027 or May 2028. FOCUS is geared towards individuals who have demonstrated resilience and excellence under challenging circumstances, whether from a personal, academic, or professional perspective. Candidates must be:

- enrolled in a four-year bachelor's degree program;
- interested in investment banking; and
- currently authorized to work in the United States and not requiring sponsorship for work authorization
