

Islamic Creed for Children

Ages 4-7

Prepared by:
Imam Faruq Post
ISWMD-2017

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

This compilation is targeted to introduce Islamic Creed to Muslim children ages 4-7. This book is not meant to be comprehensive, rather the first level of a series of books related to the topic. Teachers as well as parents should use this book as a foundation and enrich it with similarly related materials, activities and discussions. Islamic creed is the most important subject that a Muslim must know in order to live a righteous life filled with happiness, guidance, and peace.

This book will cover the following topics:

1. Who is Allah
2. Allah is our creator
3. He created everything
4. Allah provides everything for us
5. Allah blessed us with eyes, ears, a mouth, a tongue, hands, feet, etc...
6. Allah knows, hears and sees everything.
7. Allah is unique
8. Allah has beautiful names and attributes
9. A Muslim is one who submits to Allah
10. Worship is everything that Allah loves for us to do, say and believe

The teacher and parent will also find worksheets and other activities within this compilation to aid in the children's understanding and comprehension. I added a 'Reflection' and 'Questions' part to each lesson to encourage open discussion with the students and facilitate group discussion within the classroom. We would encourage that the students be asked questions regarding the material at school as well as within the home.

May Allah bless our children and guide them.

Lesson 1

Who is Allah?

Allah is our Lord.

He created all human beings,

He made all the trees, rivers, flowers, and mountains.

He made the sky, the sun, the moon, and the stars.

He made all the animals, insects, birds and fish.

He created things we see and things we don't see.

Allah made everything.

Reflection:

*Create means to make.

*One who creates is called a creator.

*Allah is the creator of everything that is, that was and will be in the future.

*The word creator in Arabic is Al-Khaaliq

Questions:

1. Who is our Lord? Who created us?
2. Who created the animals?
3. Who created the trees, sun and moon?
4. What are some things that Allah created that we cannot see with our physical eyes?
5. What does the sun provide? What would happen if the sun was always up or always down?
6. Why did Allah create us?

Activities:

1. Have kids mention some things that Allah created. Write Allah's name Al Khaaliq in Arabic.
2. Take a walk or hike and have kids discuss Allah's creation
3. Draw some pictures of Allah's creation

ALLAH

Allah is our Lord, he is one.
He has no partners and no son.
Allah created everyone including you,
He created our friends and family too.

Allah needs no sleep or rest,
He gave us this life as a test.
Allah is the most merciful and kind.
He put Islam in our hearts and mind.

Allah created the heavens above,
He made Islam which we all love.
Allah made paradise and Hell,
an eternal home to forever dwell

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

CREATION

Allah created everything. Allah created the things we can see around us and also things we do not see.

Allah created Heaven and Hell for humans. Allah is testing us to see if we will do good or bad in this life.

Allah created the angels and they work hard to obey Allah. They look after everything as Allah orders them to.

Allah gave us a mind to think so that we can study and learn about the world and about Allah.

Allah created the Earth for humans so that they can enjoy the good things it offers.

Allah created our parents who look after us. Allah put love in their hearts and they love and look after us.

Qur'an

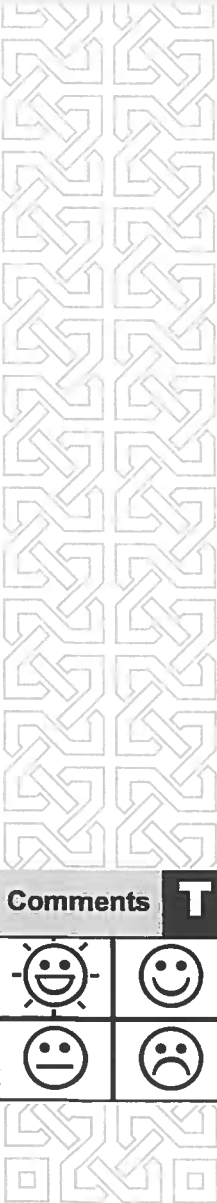

Allah ﷻ has declared:

"Such is Allah your cherisher. There is no god but He, the creator of all things, so worship Him. And He is the Guardian over everything."

Hadith

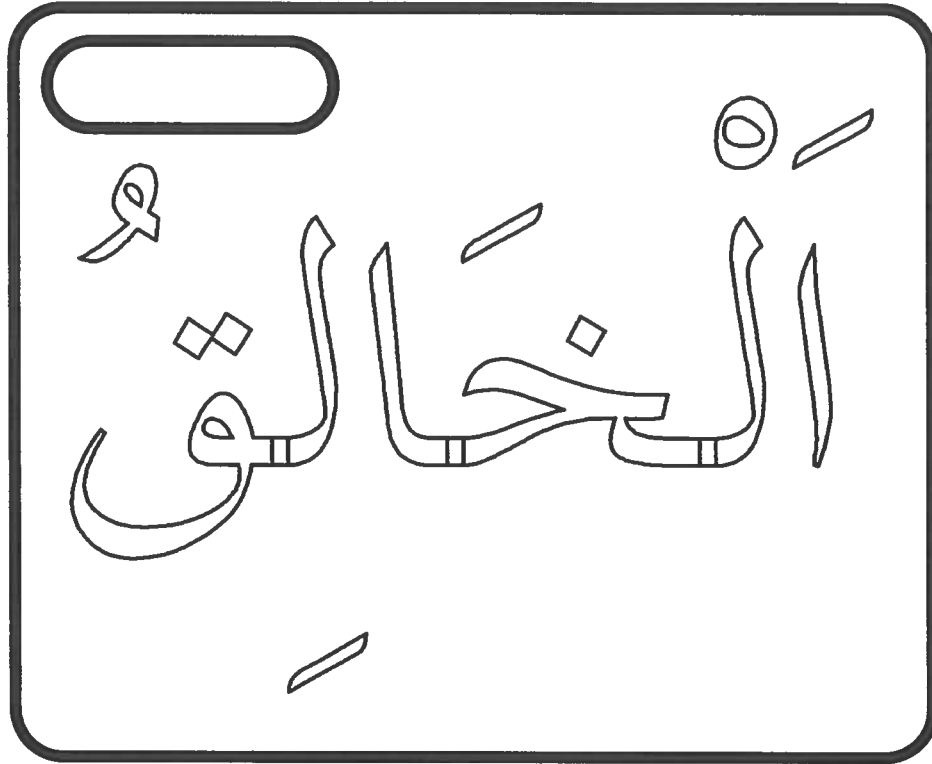

Our beloved Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said:

"All of creation are like the family of Allah, and the most beloved (one) to Allah is that person who does good to His creation."

TEACHINGS

أَمِنْتُ بِاللَّهِ وَمَلَائِكَتِهِ وَكُتُبِهِ
وَرُسُلِهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَالْقَدْرَ خَيْرًا وَشَرًّا
مِنَ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى وَالْبُعْثَ بَعْدَ الْمَوْتِ

Allah created everything that we can see,
including the flowers and the apple tree.
Allah created all creatures that we find.
Allah also created the jinn and mankind.

Of all his creation, man is the best and for all mankind, this life is a test.
We are here to follow the best deen
To follow Islam is what I mean.

We follow the teaching of the Quran and the example of the best Insaan.
We must be good Muslims, day and night and only do good and what is right.

Allah is the creator of everything that exists, including the humans. We should study Allah's creation. Can you name some of the things Allah has created?

A Things that are in the sea

A large, empty, vertically-oriented oval shape intended for students to write their answers to question A.

B Things that are on the land

A large, empty, vertically-oriented oval shape intended for students to write their answers to question B.

C Things that are in the in the skies above

A large, empty, vertically-oriented oval shape intended for students to write their answers to question C.

CREATION

Allah created the sky above your head with its colours - blue, white and red.
He created the sun - shining bright and the moon and stars we see at night

Allah created the birds that fly and all that we see in the sky.
He created the animals that walk on land and the creatures that live in the sand.

Allah created all on the Earth below,
the high mountains and the river flow.
He created the plants and the trees and the wind with its gentle breeze.

Read the story below and find suitable one word meanings for the words in the vocabulary list.

T

There was once a nomad who lived all by himself in a faraway desert. He spent his days caring for his camels and walking over the golden sand dunes from one oasis to the next.

At night he would settle himself under a palm tree and gaze into the skies, admiring its beauty and vastness. Looking at the twinkling stars and silvery moon he would say to himself, "Oh! How very beautiful!".

At dawn, before the sun rose, he would pray to Allah, praising Him and thanking Him for all the blessings and the beauty of creation he enjoyed. Until, one day, a caravan of disbelievers passed by that way. Seeing the desert nomad praying to Allah, one of the disbelievers approached him asking, "How do

The desert nomad answered, "Footprints on the sand tell of a traveller. A piece of fabric points to a weaver. A painting to a painter. The heavens with its stars, the earth with its mountains and valleys, and the sea with its waves - don't they point to the Creator, Allah, all-Powerful, Knowing, Wise and Caring?"

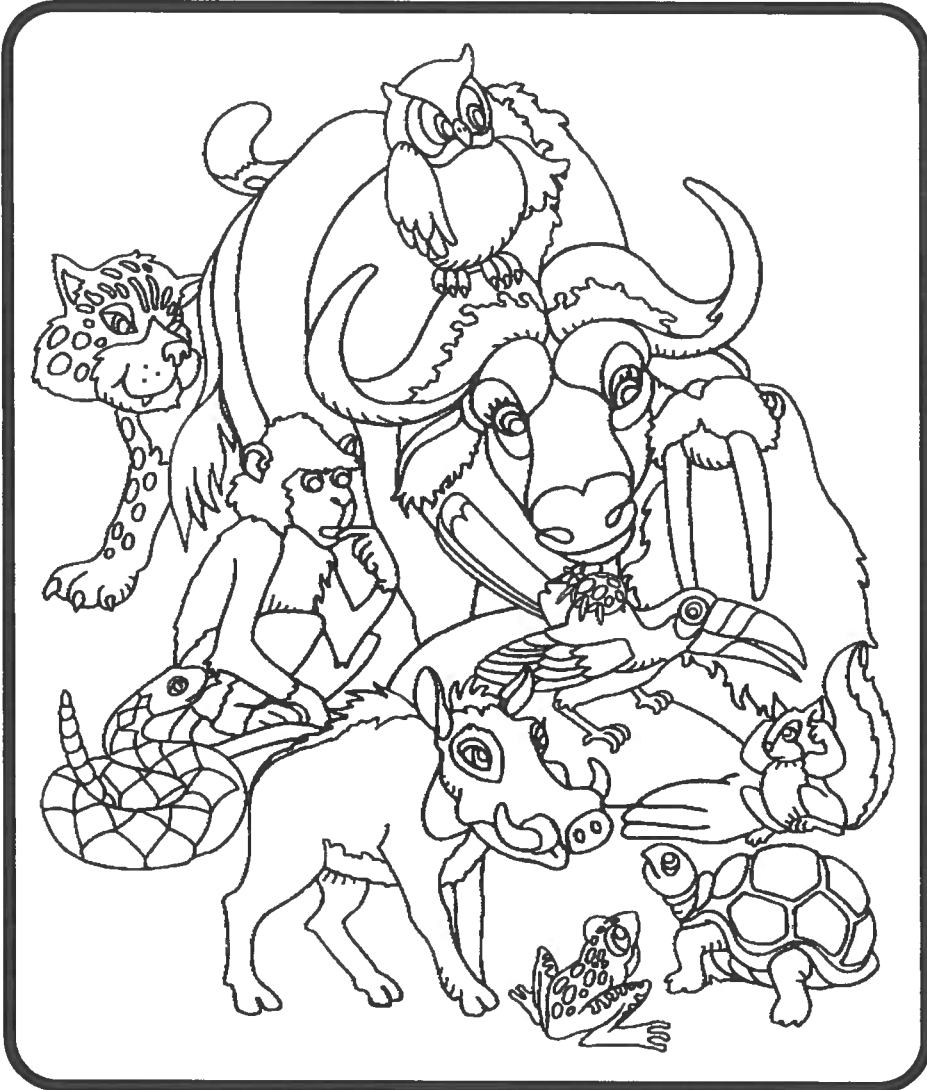

From this story we have learnt :

T

- Allah reveals Himself through His creation.
- Creation would not exist if there were no Creator.
- All people can discover Allah by looking at His wondrous signs in creation.
- Even the nomad in the desert, the Eskimo in the far-away polar regions or the Negro deep in the jungle can read the open book of Allah, creation.

Lesson 2

Who provides for the creation?

Allah provides everything for human beings and animals.

He gives us food and drink every day.

He gave us our parents and brothers and sisters.

He makes us healthy and cures us when we are sick.

He gave us hands and feet.

He gave us our eyes, ears, and noses.

He gave us our tongues and teeth.

He gave us our hearts, our lungs and hair.

He gave us the air to breathe.

He gave us our lives and can take them whenever He wills.

Allah gave us everything.

Reflection:

*Allah provides for all creatures. The Provider in Arabic is called Ar Razaq, Al Wahaab, Al Mannaan

*He provides rain that brings vegetation to feed animals and humans

*He created the sun that provides sunlight

*He gave us five senses to look at His signs in creation and worship Him

Questions:

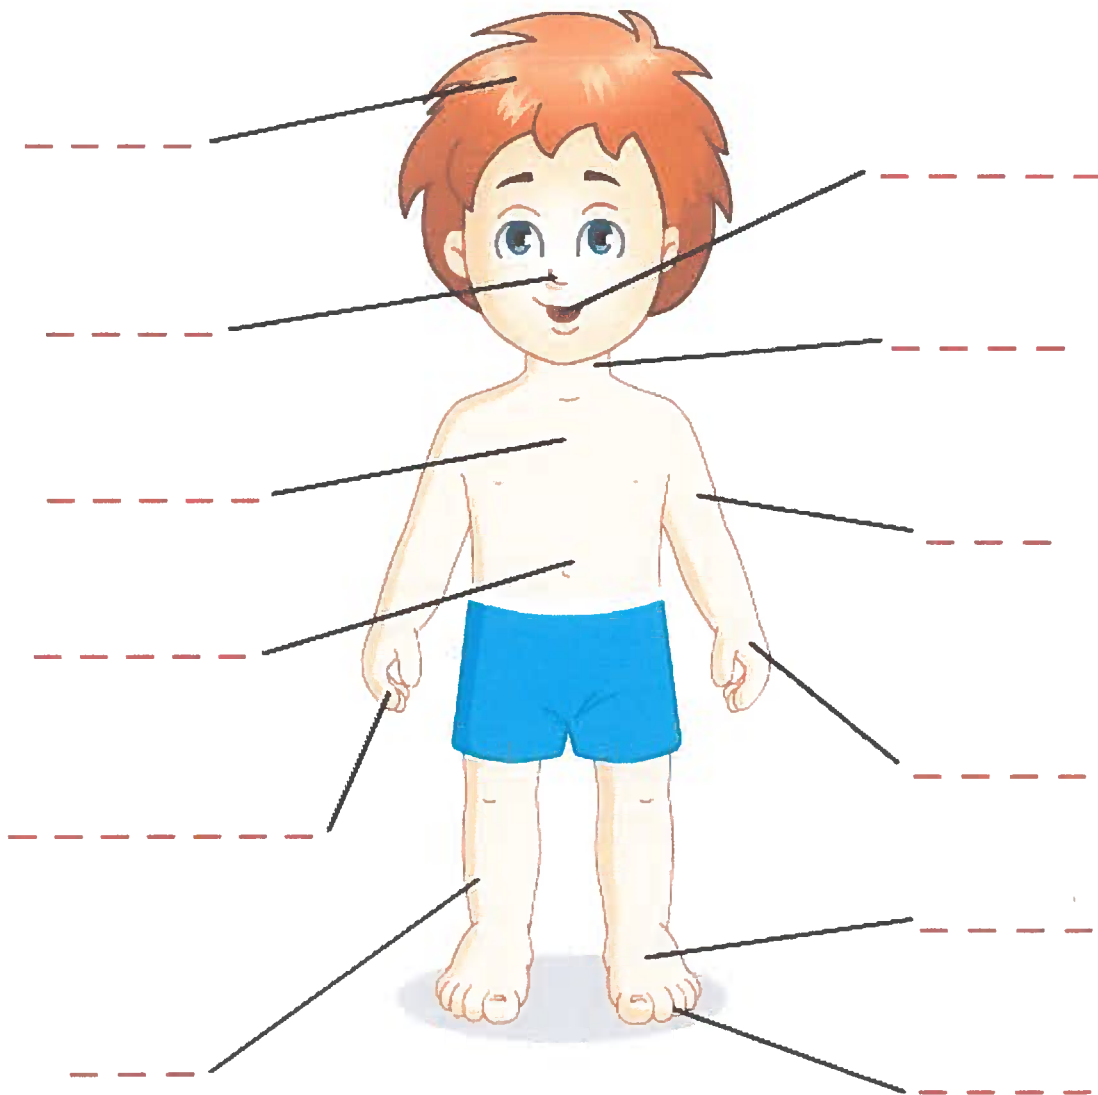

1. Who gave us food and drink?
2. Who gave us our parents and our relatives?
3. Who cures us if we are sick?
4. What else did Allah give us?
5. How can we show gratitude and be thankful for these things?

Activities:

1. Discuss Ar Raqaq and write it with students
2. Discuss ways we can be dutiful to our parents
3. Discuss some of the blessings we experience with our five senses

Lesson 3

Who knows everything?

Allah knows everything that's happening in the universe right now.

He knows what we are doing right now.

He knows what the fish are doing in the ocean.

He knows what the insects are doing under the ground.

He knows what we are thinking in our heads.

He knows what we did yesterday and what we are going to do tomorrow.

He sees us when we do good things and He sees us when we do bad things.

He hears us when we do good things and He hears us when we do bad things.

Reflection:

*Allah knows everything, He hears, sees and is aware of all things.

*Allah knows the past, present and future.

*Allah knows even the things we cannot hear or see.

Questions:

1. Does Allah know everything?
2. Does anyone else know everything?
3. Does Allah know where we are? Where our parents are? Where the diamonds are buried?
4. Does Allah hear us talking right now?
5. Is there anything that Allah cannot see or hear?

Activities:

1. Discuss some of Allah's names and attributes: Al Aleem, Al Baseer, Aalimul Ghaib, As Samee
2. Have the kids color and write the meanings of these Names of Allah

AL-'ALEEM

Lesson 4

Is Allah unique?

Allah is unique and nothing in the creation is similar or comparable to Him.

Allah is one, He has no partners, no children, no spouses, no mother, no father, no brothers or sisters.

Allah is above the seven heavens sitting on His majestic throne.

Allah's knowledge, mercy, and protection are everywhere.

Jesus is not the son of Allah.

Allah cannot be compared to the creation in any way.

Allah is perfect, complete and has no deficiencies.

Allah never sleeps, Allah doesn't need to eat, Allah doesn't need anyone or anything to aid or help Him.

Allah is the self sufficient Master of the universe and all that it contains.

Everything in the universe needs Allah. He needs no one

Allah's perfection, accuracy and precision can be seen in His creation.

Reflection:

- *Unique means: the only one of it's kind, nothing like it
- *Allah is unique in all aspects-His Lordship, His Names and Attributes
- *Allah has no offspring or partners
- *Everything and everyone in creation are dependent upon Allah

Questions:

1. Is there anyone or anything comparable to Allah?
2. Where is Allah?
3. Does Allah have a son? A father, mother? A partner?
4. Why do we need Allah?

Many people are confused about Allah. Some think that Allah is two and some say that He is three. Some even believe that everything is Allah.

A Muslim is never confused and easily finds his way out of the maze of confusion so many others are in.

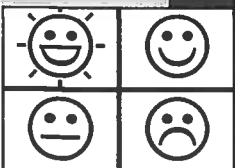

Take a pencil and draw a line along the correct path to lead us to the Oneness of Allah. Thereafter colour-in the picture.

A maze of numbers is shown. A cartoon man with a beard and a turban is walking towards the maze. The maze is composed of various numbers including 6, 7, 2, 5, 9, 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 6, 0, 2, 2, 8, 4, 2, 4, 7, 9, 3, 3. A large number 1 is at the bottom left, with an arrow pointing towards the maze. The text "Allah is one." is written in a simple font at the bottom right of the maze area.

once said to his Companions [r]:
 One day Prophet Musa [a] prayed to Almighty Allah to teach him some form of dhikr for his remembrance.
 Allah commanded him to recite, "Lailaha illallah (There is no god but Allah)!"

Musa [a] said, "O my Lord! but this dhikr is recited by all of creation." Again came the reply, "Recite 'Lailaha illallah!'" "

Musa [a] asked once more "*My Sustainer, I want something special,
 meant for me alone.*"

Almighty Allah said, "*O Musa! If the seven heavens and the seven earths were placed in one pan of a scale, and the words 'La-ilaha illal-

 the other, these words would out-

From this story we have learnt :

T

- We are commanded to remember Allah, the One.
- Remembering Allah by declaring his Oneness is a great form of worship.
- All of creation remember Allah, praising him at all times.
- We too must remember Allah at all times.
- The best way to remember Allah is to recite the words 'La-ilaha illallah', (There is no god but Allah).
- Allah has created many different worlds.
- Allah is greater than all the worlds.
- The holy name of Allah too is greater than all the worlds.

AN IMPORTANT POINT TO REMEMBER

Just as Allah is greater than all His creation, so too is His holy name and His holy words.

ACTIVITIES

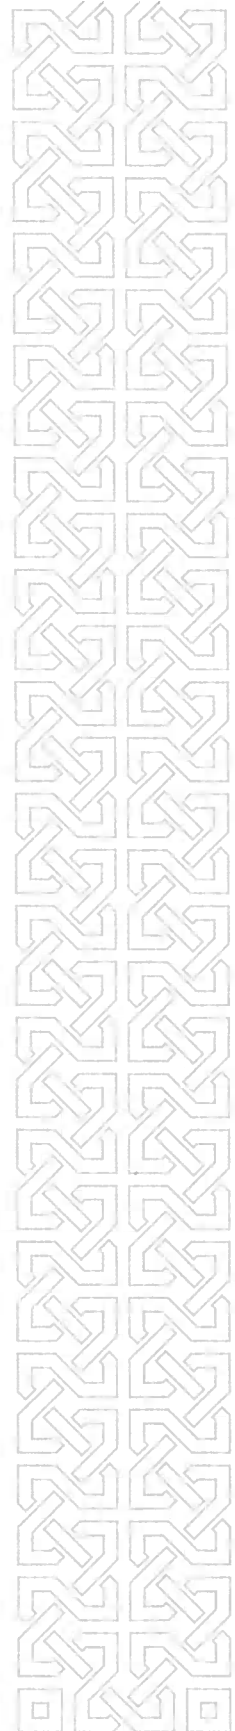

Every door requires a special key to open it, and so too do the doors of Jannah. The key which unlocks the doors of Jannah is 'La-ilaha illallah', belief in the Oneness of Allah. Study the picture to find which lock the key will fit. Colour it in too!

C P

- Allah has revealed in the holy Qur'an that He is one. This is the surest way of knowing.
- All Prophets have taught that Allah is one.
- Allah is All-Powerful. He needs no helpers nor any partners. Only the weak need partners.
- Allah has created all of creation in perfect order and harmony. Had there been more than one God, there would be chaos in the universe.
- A class has one teacher. A car has one driver. A country has one leader. If there were two, there would be chaos.
- There is no such chaos in creation and so we know that there is only one Allah.

"If there were, in the heavens and the earth, other gods besides Allah, there would have been confusion in both."

[Al-Anbiya', 22]

Lesson 5

Does Allah have other names?

Allah has 99 names and more.

All of Allah's names are beautiful and perfect.

Allah is the Most Merciful.

Allah is the All Forgiving.

Allah is the All Mighty.

Allah is the Everlasting.

Allah is the All Seeing, All Hearing, All Knowing.

Allah's mercy is everywhere.

Allah can forgive whoever He wills, whenever He wills.

Allah's power is the strongest and mightiest.

Allah never sleeps, nor gets tired or fatigued.

Allah sees everything, hears everything and knows everything.

Nothing in creation is comparable to Allah.

Reflection:

*Allah has more than 99 names, some He has taught us others He kept concealed from us.

*We should learn to call upon and supplicate to Allah with His beautiful names.

*Allah's names and attributes are complete and perfect.

*Allah has no similarities.

Questions:

1. How many names does Allah have?
2. Does Allah see us? Hear us?
3. Why should we learn Allah's names?

Activities:

1. Teach the meanings of some of Allah's names and the attributes associated with them.
2. Coloring worksheets. At home assignments with parents: Allah's names and attributes and how knowing them effects of lives positively.

Lesson 6

What is a Muslim?

A Muslim is one who submits to Allah and follows His commandments.

A Muslim is a good person that worships Allah only.

Allah loves the Muslims.

Muslims love Allah.

Muslims love Muhammad.

Muslims are dutiful and respectful to their parents.

Muslims speak good words and have good behavior.

Muslims respect their friends and their elders.

Muslims love all of the prophets of Allah.

Muslims love all of the prophets companions.

Reflection:

*Muslims are those who submit to Allah by practicing Islam

*Muslims love Allah and Muhammad more than anyone else

*Muslims love and respect others: their parents, elders, friends, neighbors.

Questions:

1. What is a Muslim? Are you a Muslim?
2. Who do Muslims pray to?
3. Do Muslims love Allah? Muhammad? Prophets? Companions?
4. Who should Muslims try to follow?
5. What is the religion of the Muslims? What is your religion?

Activities:

1. Discuss population of Muslims throughout the world-Arab/Non-Arab
2. Discuss why we love Allah and why we love the Prophets and companions.

ISLAM

Islam is the deen of the Muslims. Islam is an Arabic word which is taken from the words peace and submission.

We submit to Allah by choosing to follow His guidance in everything we do. This means we must not do anything against Allah's wishes.

When we follow Islam properly, there is peace: peace in our lives; peace in the community and peace in the world.

Islam is not an ordinary religion but is a way of life. Islam is the way of life for all the Muslims in the world.

A true Muslim is a person who follows the command of Allah in every part of his or her life.

Islam is not a new religion. All the people who followed the true teachings of their prophets were Muslims.

THE 5 PILLARS

Islam is based on five pillars. This means in Islam there are five very important things which every Muslim must follow.

1. Shahadah - To believe in your heart and say with your tongue There is no god but Allah and Muhammad (pbuh) is His messenger.

2. Salah - To pray five times every day. The five daily prayers are Fajr, Zohr, Asr, Maghrib and Isha.

3. Zakah - To purify our wealth by giving a small amount to the poor. This is given from our extra wealth.

4. Sawm - To not eat and drink from before Fajr until after Maghrib. This is known as fasting. We fast during the month of Ramadhan.

5. Hajj - To make pilgrimage to Makkah. We must perform the Hajj at least once in our lifetime, if we are able to.

SHAHADAH

When people become Muslims they say the Shahadah with their mouths. They also believe it in their hearts.

Shahadah means to bear witness to something. In Islam, it means to bear witness to the oneness of Allah and that Muhammad (pbuh) is His messenger

The first part is to bear witness that there is only one God - Allah - Who alone we worship.

The second part is to bear witness that Muhammad (pbuh) is the last and final messenger of Allah.

A person who believes the Shahadah in his or her heart is indeed a Muslim. All Muslims believe the Shadahah.

All prophets taught that Allah is one, without a partner or a son. They told us to worship only Allah and nothing else besides Allah.

POETRY

SHAHADAH

أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

I bear witness that there is no god besides Allah

وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ

and I bear witness that Muhammad is His servant and messenger.

We believe that Allah is One who has no equal, partner nor son.
Its Allah we worship, to him we pray,
the Lord and Master of the final day.

In Muhammad we also believe,
prophethood and Wahi he did receive.
He was the last and final guide,
whose message will forever reside.

So leave falsehood and evil aside and let Islam in our hearts abide.
Success and happiness will thrive
when Iman in our heart is alive.

Lailhah illah is what we read
it is our kalima - the Muslim creed
Islam is the religion that we follow
And Islam is the best, as we all know

We are called Muslims both you and me
Muslims are pious as you can see
We worship only Allah - the most high
And to follow that Kalima we always try

We have the messenger as the best guide
Who's teaching in our hearts abide
This is what being a Muslim demands
That we follow his teachings and commands

Declare the Oneness of Allah,
“La-ilaha illallah”
Allah is one and can't be three,
The truth is simple as can be.

He's the source of everything,
And doesn't need a single thing,
He wasn't born and will not die,
And that is surely not a lie.

Muhammad-ur-Rasulullah,
The final Prophet of Allah,
Peace and blessings on him too,
Who came to show us what to do.

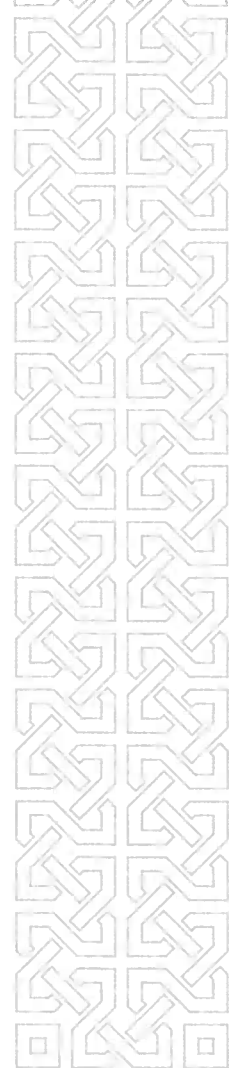

Allah chose him for mankind,
No one greater will we find,
And his Sunnah is our guide,
By his ways we should abide.

Those who believe in Allah now,
Must accept this simple vow,
“La-ilaha illallah
Muhammad-ur-Rasulullah”,

This Shahadah is a sacred creed,
Live by it and you'll succeed,
And be a witness to the truth,
Though you may be but a youth.

BE A'MAZED

Its time for Fajr Salah. Help Penpal get to the Masjid as quickly as possible.

Salah is an important part of Islam. Muslims must perform Salah five times a day. The five prayers are Fajr, Zohr, Asr, Maghrib and Isha.

According to Hadith, a person who performs Salah with Jamaat (congregation) will get 27 times more reward than performing it on his own.
