CURRICULUM VITAE

ABOUT ME

I was born claircognizant, clairsentient, clairvoyant, and clairaudient. I remember how challenging it was as a child—not knowing how to navigate these gifts or who to turn to for guidance—while framed within the collective consciousness, religious dogmas, and family beliefs. Since the age of three, I have experienced paranormal and psychic phenomena: consciously seeing, hearing, feeling, and communicating with spirits, enlightened beings, and multidimensional presences—experiences that many encounter only through plant medicine ceremonies, rituals, or altered states. I experience them fully, consciously, in everyday awareness.

My mother was born a natural medium, as was her mother, my grandmother. Both possessed innate intuitive abilities from birth. My mother developed her practice through Spiritism—a science dedicated to the relationship between incorporeal beings (spirits) and human beings. As articulated by Allan Kardec, Spiritism is not viewed as a religion, but as a philosophical doctrine grounded in a scientific fulcrum and moral principles.

In this lifetime, reflecting my Italian and Spanish paternal lineage, I was baptized in the Catholic Church, attended catechism, received my First Holy Communion, and completed the Sacrament of Confirmation as a young teenager. Later, while living in New Zealand, I joined a Christian Community Church, participating actively in ministry and Bible studies. In 2010, I converted to Buddhism. For seven years, I practiced and shared Nichiren Daishonin Buddhism through Soka Gakkai, conveying the wisdom of the Lotus Sutra across several countries in Southeast Asia, Brazil, and Europe. Whenever applicable and possible, I also shared the profound importance and teachings of the other branches associated with Theravada, Mahayana, and Vajrayana Buddhism.

From 2016 onward, I devoted my life to synthesizing the Western and Eastern Mystery Traditions. I have wholeheartedly immersed my time in all possible esoteric "occult" teachings, spanning classical foundations to modern approaches, including Hypnotherapy, ThetaHealing®, Reiki, Numerology, Tarot, Kabbalah, Human Design, Astrology & Astrophysics, Vedic Mathematics & Sacred Geometry, and others. I have profoundly studied the work of the greatest teachers that have been on Earth—those currently alive, those who have transcended, and those operating between realms—and I continue to witness their work through time, space, and dimensions.

I was born with innate intuitive abilities, carrying wisdom I acquired myself alongside the ancestral knowledge passed down through my lineage. I recall all my relevant past and future lives and experiences. My core life purpose is to educate, share knowledge, and transmit wisdom. In 2017, a Kahuna (Hawaiian Healer) blessed me with the name Kealoha Okalani, which I have refined to Kealoha Cristiano Okalani.

Today, I am an Educator, a Healer, and a Spiritual Teacher—One with Source. Alternative, holistic, vibrational, and complementary medicine served to remind me of the true attributes of my Self (Soul), and the sacredness and wholeness of my existence as an Infinite Being. I can teach you how to help yourself and improve all aspects of your life—from personal, social, and academic to professional—by achieving the harmonious connection of body, mind, and soul. I also support humanity as a Self-Motivation and Self-Improvement author.

Love & Gratitude

Sending you waves of Aloha,
Kealoha Cristiano Okalani
