

HORARY ASTROLOGY

The Art of the Sacred Question

Horary Astrology is a precise, question-based branch of astrology. When a pressing dilemma arises, the astrologer casts a chart for the exact moment and location the question is received.

It is designed to bring profound light and clarity to a specific situation. Rather than providing absolute fortune-telling or unsolicited advice, Horary reveals the underlying mechanics, motives, and trajectory of the circumstances at hand.

This ancient art has been refined over thousands of years. It operates on the fundamental truth that human experience is intrinsically woven into the unfolding Cosmos. Historically employed to guide kings, states, and generals, this powerful diagnostic tool is now accessible to anyone seeking sovereign clarity.

Scope of Inquiry

Horary Astrology provides actionable insight across personal, professional, academic, legal, and social matters, including:

- Legal & Contractual Matters: Disputes, litigation outcomes, and contractual agreements.
- Real Estate & Assets: The purchase, sale, quality, or valuation of real estate and property.
- Workplace & Business: Employee dynamics, professional partnerships, and career moves.
- Physical Vitality & Health: Evaluating the state, vitality, or nature of dis-ease within the body.
- Locational & Descriptive Insights: Indicating past, present, or future events; physical descriptions of people and places; and the precise location or direction of missing individuals, pets, or objects.
- Initiatives & Events: Assessing upcoming courses, retreats, business launches, or travel itineraries.

How Horary Works

- Temporal & Geographical Precision: The chart is cast specifically for the astrologer's geographic location at the exact moment the question is received and understood.
- House Allocation: The nature of your inquiry dictates which of the twelve houses becomes the center point, ensuring the chart is custom-attuned to your specific situation.

- Planetary Rulers: Specific planets are assigned as signifiers for you and the parties involved. The Moon acts as a universal co-ruler, mapping the real-time flow and emotional momentum of the inquiry.
- Synthesis: Through synthesizing planetary dignities, aspects, and movements, a coherent, highly accurate reading of your situation is revealed.

Rules of the Oracle & Sacred Inquiry

To ensure clarity and truth in the chart, the following guidelines must be strictly observed:

- The Single Inquiry Rule: A Horary question can only be cast once. An oracle must be approached with reverence. Refrain from submitting the same question to multiple practitioners or alternative divination tools.
- Clarity over Complexity: Sit quietly with your situation before asking. Allow your core concern to surface. Please submit one pressing situation at a time rather than combining multiple unrelated questions.
- Invalid Inquiries: Horary will not yield a clear chart for:
 - Thoughtless or superficial questions.
 - Inquiries designed to "test" the system or the astrologer.
 - Matters that do not directly impact you personally.
 - Hypothetical scenarios (the situation must be active and existing).
- Reframing "Should I...?" Questions: Avoid asking "Should I do X?" Horary does not make life choices for you. Instead, Horary asks the Cosmos: "What is the current cosmic unfolding regarding this specific situation?"
- Sovereignty & Choice: The astrologer interprets the symbolic blueprint so you can make an informed, empowered choice. Ultimate responsibility for your actions rests entirely with you.
- The Natal Chart Interplay: A Horary chart cannot promise what your Natal Chart denies. Your birth data will be cross-referenced alongside your Horary chart to assess current transits and planetary periods. If your Natal Chart does not grant a "green light" for an outcome, a Horary chart cannot override that baseline reality.
