YOUR NEXT CHAPTER

You have the experience.

You have the education.

You have the professional network.

And you may already have an idea for a business that could generate additional income, provide new opportunities, or eventually give you the freedom to walk away from corporate America.

So what's stopping you?

TIME. COMPLEXITY. PAPERWORK.

And the hassle of figuring it all out.

We can take that off your plate.

Introducing our Premium Business Launch Concierge Service

A personalized, hands-on service designed for accomplished women who are ready to establish a business without spending months attending webinars, researching business requirements, or trying to figure out every detail themselves.

Whether you're an executive considering self-employment, an early retiree looking for a new challenge, a professional between executive positions, or a high-earning woman interested in building a business for additional income and potential tax-planning opportunities, we help turn your idea into a functioning business foundation.

OUR EXPERIENCE

We do the groundwork. You focus on your next chapter.

years helping entrepreneurs establish businesses

30+
years of combined business management experience

For six years, we have helped entrepreneurs establish businesses across multiple industries, including:

- Travel and hospitality businesses
- Consulting and fractional executive services
- Restaurants and food services
- Laundry and residential cleaning services
- Premium business-to-business services

We bring more than 30 years of combined business management experience to the process.

WHAT YOUR BUSINESS LAUNCH INCLUDES

Your $6,999 concierge engagement includes:

01 One-on-one business launch consultation and planning.

02 Assistance determining your business structure and formation requirements.

03 Coordination and guidance through LegalZoom for formation documents and services, including EIN applications, articles of incorporation or organization, registered agent services, and other applicable business services.

04 A preliminary website setup through UENI to establish your initial online presence.

05 Guidance on the business services, tools, and resources needed to get started.

06 Organization of your business documentation, with copies sent to your home via FedEx.

07 30 days of personalized consulting and launch support.

We walk you through what we have put in place, explain the process, and help you understand how to move forward.

Please note: Government filing fees, LegalZoom charges, registered agent fees, website subscriptions, hosting, and other third-party costs are separate and are not included in our service investment. Tax, legal, and accounting advice must be obtained from appropriately licensed professionals.

A FEW WORDS FOR YOU

Is this your moment?

01

You've earned the right to be your own boss.

You have the education. The experience. The professional network. The leadership skills.

What you may not have is the time or desire to navigate all the details of launching a business.

That's where we come in.

Our done-for-you business launch service helps accomplished women transition from corporate professionals to business owners without having to build everything from scratch.

We take care of the foundational work, including business planning, business formation guidance, branding, website development, and the essential infrastructure needed to get started.

Whether you're transitioning out of an executive role, launching a consulting practice, creating a professional services company, or exploring entrepreneurship after early retirement, we help make the transition easier.

> You spent decades investing in your career. Now invest in yourself.

Your next chapter deserves more than another job search.

Let's build your business.

Schedule your private business launch consultation.

02

You're successful. You're experienced. You earn a great living. But are you happy?

Are you tired of corporate politics, being undervalued, working under constant pressure, worrying about the next restructuring, or wondering how much longer you can keep doing this?

Maybe you've already retired early, but you know you still have more to offer.

Here's something to consider:

> You don't have to start over. You can start something of your own.

Our business launch service takes the guesswork and much of the groundwork out of starting a business.

We help you move from idea to business owner by handling the foundational work: business planning, setup, branding, website development, and essential business infrastructure.

You don't need another degree. You don't need another 20 years climbing someone else's corporate ladder.

You need a plan, a foundation, and the right support.

> Your experience has value. Your independence has value. And your time is valuable.

Don't wait until another restructuring, another disappointing review, or another year passes to make a change.

Let's get your business started.

Book your business launch consultation today.

03

You've spent 20, 25, or even 30 years building someone else's business.

You've led teams, managed million-dollar budgets, solved complex problems, and delivered results.

So why are you still waiting to build something of your own?

Whether you're an executive ready to leave corporate America, a high-earning professional tired of the daily grind, or a woman who retired early and isn't quite ready to stop making an impact, there's another opportunity waiting for you.

> Imagine owning a business without having to figure out every single step yourself.

We do the groundwork for you.

From developing your business concept and establishing your business structure to creating your brand, building your online presence, and putting essential business systems in place, we help turn your vision into a business that's ready for you to take the lead.

You bring the experience, expertise, and ambition.

We'll help you build the foundation.

Stop putting your next chapter on hold. Your professional experience is an asset. It's time to put it to work for YOU.

Limited onboarding opportunities available.

> Your career built someone else's dream. Let's build yours.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF LAUNCH

This is not a class. It's not a webinar. And it's not another online course.

This is a premium concierge engagement for women whose time is valuable.

You don't need another 12-week program or a stack of instructional videos. You need experienced professionals who can help you get the groundwork done.

Just 3 spots left for November.

Your opportunity to have your business foundation established for the new year is quickly disappearing.

HERE'S THE QUESTION

In six months, would you rather still be talking about the business you want to start — or be running one?

Imagine entering January with a business entity, formation documents, an initial website, and a professional launch plan already underway.

Why spend another year talking about starting a business when you could be taking the first steps now?

Don't let another year pass waiting for the perfect time. Your experience is already valuable. It's time to put it to work for YOU.

Reserve your November business launch today.
