

Manuscript Proposal

We are excited to consider new works for publication. Please complete the form below with detailed information about your manuscript and your publishing goals. This will help us better understand your project and determine how we might assist you in bringing your work to readers.

1. Brief Overview of Your Book

Please provide a brief summary of your book including its genre, theme, and scope.

2. Current Status of Your Manuscript

Is your manuscript complete, in progress, or still in the conceptual phase?

3. Target Audience

Who do you see as the primary readership for your book?

4. Goals for This Book

What are your aspirations for this book? Are you looking to self-publish, find a traditional publisher, or target a niche audience?

5. Publishing Timeline

Do you have a specific timeline or deadline by which you aim to publish your book?

6. Previous Publications

Have you previously published any work? If yes, please provide details.

7. Publishing Services Required

What type of publishing services are you interested in? (e.g., editing, design, marketing, distribution)

8. Budget for This Project

What is your budget for the publishing process?

9. Expectations or Concerns

Do you have any specific expectations or concerns about the publishing process?

10. Samples of Your Work

Please attach samples of your work or provide links where we can access your writing. This helps us assess the quality and style of your writing.

Submission Instructions

Before you submit, please ensure all sections are filled out completely and accurately. Once submitted, our editorial team will review your submission and contact you if we need further information or to discuss the next steps. Save the form.

Send the completed form to: ddejohne@cox.net

.