OASIS CAMPGROUND FIRE EMERGENCY DIRECTIONS

1. Call 911 immediately in case of fire
2. Tell the 911 Dispatcher that you are calling from site number _____, Oasis Campground, N4398 Elizabeth Lane, Hancock, WI 54943, Waushara County.
3. Walk away rapidly from the fire location.
4. Do not attempt to move vehicles or camper units. You can become trapped in your vehicle during a fire.
5. Have a rendezvous location for the people in your camping unit to meet in case of fire.
6. Keep children, pets and adults clear of campground roads. The roads need to be open for emergency responders and fire trucks.
7. Stay back at least 500 feet from fires involving propane tanks since they can explode.
8. Make sure you have a working smoke detector, carbon monoxide detector and fire extinguisher in your camper.
9. Always turn off propane grills when not in use and put out all campfires when done.
