

Welcome!

The committee is excited to meet you and wish to be the first to welcome you to the Riley Festival Pageant. You are joining a group of strong, intelligent, and brave young ladies who have vied for this title since the 70's. You likely have a lot of questions, most of which will be answered on the following pages and on the application. First and foremost - this will be fun.

The most common feedback we receive after the pageant is how surprised contestants are that they made life-long friends, and how much fun they had despite the fact that it is a competition. Additionally - the pageant helps you build your network! Committee members and chairpersons often stay in touch and make connections when needed. Next - the pageant. Don't panic just yet, we'll guide you every step of the way and provide resources to prepare you for the whole process.

If you use the resources provided, practice, and prepare you'll be confident when it's time to shine. Last, remember what this is about - your chance to represent the home you love, and the town that celebrates its most famous resident each year in October. You'll get the chance to talk about that hometown pride (and show your knowledge of Mr. Riley) during the interview.

So get a head start and read up on the notorious JWR, you'll be glad you did. We suggest starting with this year's theme poem "A Barefoot Boy". To get things moving - start by reviewing the next few pages of information. It is critical that you can comply with the eligibility requirements and expectations of attendance during the Festival.
