Ezekiel 34:12 - As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

As we step into the new year, let us take a moment to reflect on the incredible blessings God has bestowed upon us and the lessons we've learned through our trials.

This is a time for renewal, where we can embrace the promise of hope and purpose that Scripture offers.

With faith as our foundation, let's commit ourselves to living boldly, seeking God's guidance in every step we take.

May we be instruments of His love and grace, uplifted by the assurance that He has plans for our lives, plans to prosper us and not to harm us.

As we embark on this journey together, let's encourage one another, spread kindness, and pursue our divine calling with unwavering courage. Here's to a year filled with faith, community, and the joy of serving our Lord!

ROOTED IN GOD'S WORD, WE SHARE
FAITH, HOPE, AND
LOVE IN OUR HOMES,
CHURCH, COMMUNITY AND AROUND THE WORLD.

Pastor's Reflection

You still have time to catch my daughter's film, "The Daphne Project." This was Zora Iman Crews' first film, in which she is the co-director with Alec Tibaldi, the co-screenwriter, and stars in the film. The film is available on several platforms: Amazon Prime Video and Fuse.

Zora is a 2010 graduate of Fiorella H. LaGuardia High School of Music and Art and Performing Arts, one of New York's specialized High Schools. She is a 2014 graduate of Syracuse University's College of Visual and Performing Arts with a Bachelor of Fine Arts and a Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing (Poetry) from Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, NY, in 2020.

When not creating, you can find her at Bloomingdale's flagship store in Manhattan as a Coordinator, Luxury Sales Facilitator

Welcome Our New Bishop of the Metropolitan New York Synod

In faith,
The Rev. Dr. Katrina D. Foster
Bishop, Metropolitan New York Synod
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Rev. Dr. Katrina D. Foster is from Florida. She earned a B.A. in Religion/Philosophy and Sociology from Newberry College, a Master of Divinity from the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, and a Doctor of Ministry from the Lutheran Theological Seminary of Philadelphia.

She was ordained on December 4, 1994, and served at Fordham Evangelical Lutheran Church in the Bronx from 1994 to 2010. Bishop Foster then served St. Michael's Lutheran Church in Amagansett, NY, and Incarnation Lutheran Church in Bridgehampton, NY, from 2010 to 2015, and St. John's Lutheran Church in Greenpoint, Brooklyn, from 2015 to 2025.

Bishop Foster has been featured in various documentaries and articles, including One Baptism, Many Gifts: The Story of Three Lutherans Called to Ministry, Working Women: The Urban Pastor, and the "Heroes" segment of PBS' The Great American Read.

The particular ministries of evangelism, discipleship, and financial stewardship have been passions of Bishop Foster throughout her thirty years of parish ministry in MNYS. She is also focused on building affordable housing throughout the synod and hopes to inspire the wider church with these passions and new directions for ministry.

Pastor Foster lives in the Bronx, commutes to the synod offices by train, and believes that the city's mass transit system is a glimpse of what the Kingdom of God looks like.

Welcome Our New Bishop Metropolitan Chicago Synod

Yehiel Curry Elected Presiding
Bishop of the ELCA

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America elected its first Black presiding bishop last week. Bishop Yehiel Curry — who currently leads the Metropolitan Chicago Synod — will start his new role in October.

The Rev. Yehiel Curry was elected as the next presiding bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) at the ELCA Churchwide Assembly in Phoenix, Ariz., on July 30, 2025. He began this role on Oct. 1, 2025, and was installed on Oct. 4 in Minneapolis.

Previously, he served as bishop of the ELCA Metropolitan Chicago Synod, where he leads a synod staff and 160 congregations by providing pastoral care, preaching, teaching, administering sacraments, and overseeing ordinations and installations. He was elected synod bishop in 2019 and reelected in spring 2025. Curry chaired the ELCA Conference of Bishops, fostering ecumenical relationships and theological engagement across the Lutheran communion.

Previously, Curry served as the mission developer (2007–2012) and pastor (2013–2019) of Shekinah Chapel Lutheran Church in Riverdale, Ill. He earned a Bachelor of Arts from Lewis University in Romeoville, Ill., and a Master of Divinity from the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago. He and his wife, LaShonda, are the proud parents of three daughters.

Drawn Together!

This week’s Gospel comes from John 1:1–18, a passage that feels especially powerful at both the end of one year and the beginning of another. It speaks of Jesus as the Word who was with God from the very beginning—life itself, light itself.

“The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.”

As we step into a new year filled with unknowns, this passage reminds us that God’s light is not little. It is strong, enduring, and already present. Christ’s divinity means that God has been with us from the beginning of time—and will continue to be with us in every season ahead. This is a story of hope, strength, and deep assurance: darkness does not get the final word.

As you move through this devotional together, I invite you to reflect on where you have seen light this past year, and where you are longing for light in the year to come. Even the smallest flickers matter.

Thank you for being part of this creative ministry.

As always, I hope this issue brings a little peace into your home, your congregation, or wherever you gather to color, question, and pray.

With gratitude and confetti,

Raquel

Let Us Pray TOGETHER!

O God, Where hearts are fearful and constricted, grant courage and hope.
Where anxiety is infectious, grant peace and reassurance.
Where impossibilities close every door and window, grant imagination and resistance.
Where distrust twists our thinking and grants healing and illumination.
Where spirits are daunted and weak, grant soaring wings and strengthened dreams. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen.
