> The paint in the dining room looks pretty grubby.....don't know if we want to paint it so it looks better for Homecoming. How are we going to get those stumps pulled out from the arbs that were cut down. It looks so much better out front. Now we need to get the shit off the porch. I haven't heard back from Steve Bolesta. We should bring up the idea of cleaning up Buddy Cole's leaves at the Homecoming meeting. At least put the idea out there. I wonder when Ron plans on paying his rent at the house? He is on odd duck!
