

Run #2132 Monday 16th March, The Rising Sun, Brentwood

Hare:- Compressed Fart, with Corpse on the beer stop

Tonight we gathered at The Rising Sun in Brentwood, the pub was warm & cosy, so it seemed a bit fresh when we stepped outside – but we soon warmed up. Eighteen hashers gathered in the circle – with Vicky Vomit & Dr Doolittle bringing up the number to 20. However – there were only 4 runners, and 3 different sets of walkers – so it was anyone's guess who was going to make it to the beer stop! Anyway – the runners set off – navigating the checks & false trails – and as we weaved through jolly Brentwood – it all started to feel very familiar – and there was Corpse in his usual car park (although he had decided to park in a different position today!).

Twelve hashers made it to the beer stop – which included Corpse's usual delights of chocolate & soft drinks. Eight hashers then continued on their way to complete the rest of the trail. Luckily we were still 20 when we returned – although Fag After & the Master had actually got lost on their walk (earning a down-down)!

Compressed Fart seemed to be a little indecisive when laying the trail – as some marks seem to say one thing – and then had been changed to say something else. There were bits in chalk and bits in sawdust, but he was pretty lucky that the earlier rain had stopped, and hadn't completely washed away his trail!

The pub was very welcoming when we returned and we had plenty of snacks & nibbles to go round. We then got onto the down-downs – Frogman got one, but had at least 2 misdemeanours (going into the pub kitchen to get changed, and standing outside waiting for the Master to come back and give him the key – when he was sitting inside!).

Other sinning on the walk include Four-play stroking a cat (!), Lunchbox wearing a non-hash-standard-issued hat, Heapo & Corpse for some tray shenanigans and the Count for having a new car (!).

Along the way, Sludge found the golf ball and hence the golf ball prize, and AGO won the raffle star prize!

On! On!
