

Run #2106, Monday 15th September, The Foxhound, Orsett

Hare:- Casey & Blowdry

Tonight we gathered at The Foxhound in Orsett, thanks to Casey & Blowdry for stepping in and arranging the hash at short notice.

We circled up outside and the GM (returning from his holidays) announced run number 2106. Casey & Blowdry confirmed that the trail was mostly on road, and that it was marked in various coloured chalks! We were soon running, and following the giant arrows – we weren't going to miss those (were we Basil!). It was a very windy night, but at least it was not too chilly, and torches were only really needed for the 2nd half.

We meandered around the housing area, and then finally we were at our favourite crossroads, where Basil & Sludge set off in different directions, and were soon both calling 'On', no-one knew who to follow – until Zipper & Frogman set off across the field – and also called 'On' – and we all followed them!

Once out the other side of the field, it was then a short walk to the beer stop, where we met Heapo. We then ran along a few more field edges and circled back round towards the pub. Sludge & Small Prick were leading the way – and thought they knew the way back, up the alley near the pub. Fourplay then followed their torches, thinking they knew the way, no-one knew the way – and we had to clamber under a fallen fence to finally get back. Everyone else went the right way – and found the 'On-Inn'.

It was then time to gather in the pub, there were now 17 of us, and once again Fourplay was standing in for hash-cash. Sludge also stood in for the RA – as Casey was the hare. Time for the down-downs, and Fourplay & Small Prick got theirs for the way-ward alley action, Casey and Blowdry for their wonderful hare'ing, Casey again for leaving Sludge in the lurch last week, Fag-After for yet-again deserting the down-down circle just as we were about to start, and Lunchbox, the Count and Heapo for various other misdemeanours!

Another great hashing evening concluded with the wonderful (!) raffle prizes handed out by the hares!

On! On!
