

Run #2120, Monday 22nd December, The Bakers Arms, Danbury

Hares:- The Count & Comes Not a Lot

For our pre-Christmas hash, 26 hashers gathered at The Bakers Arms in Danbury, for a trail led by Count Dracula & Comes Not a Lot. For December, it was a reasonable evening, not too chilly & not raining – although quite wet & muddy underfoot.

We circled up and the GM/Hare set us on our way, at first we were in the lit streets of Danbury – but we soon headed off into the woods – and had to watch our step in the mud, puddles, leaves & roots. There were a few FRB's – so the pack soon split up – and we had an impromptu re-group in Twitty Fee.

We were soon back in the houses – and guess what – the 'Mulled Wine' stop was at Count Draculas house – prepared by the lovely Janine. Nearly everyone had mulled wine – non-alcoholic was available, except Small Prick who had a beer. There were also mince pies and stolen. We then went on our way – but some of the walkers took a short cut back to the pub!

The pack continued on through the woods - down onto Danbury Common, with a standard false trail up a steep slope – which a few hashers followed, including Henry (named as Shirley), who was leading Basil a merry dance the whole way round! Finally we wound our way back, past the tennis courts and up to the main road – and then back to the pub.

Once in the pub, more mince pies were consumed, along with bowls of chips & sausages. We then had the down-downs which went to Tiny Tears for losing his raffle ticket, Frogman for turning up (it was Zippers turn for the sick-rota), the return of the 'lost' tray went to Heapo and Corpse, the Hares, and a Hashy Birthday for Casey. We even had 2 songs which actually rhymed!

On! On!
