

Run #2089, Monday 26th May 2025, The Bakers Arms, Danbury

Hares:- Count Dracula & Corpse Shagger

On this fine bank holiday Monday morning, the hash gathered at The Bakers Arms in Danbury (again!), joined by some of the Pitsea Running Club among others, making in excess of 20 runners/walkers, plus 2 dogs!

We set off down the road opposite the pub, and we were soon into weaving our way through the pathways of Danbury, finally ending up along the Ridge, with its many ups & downs. We then entered Blakes Wood, where we encountered a woman looking for a lost dog (whom Corpse had actually seen, but wasn't able to catch it as it was 'too fast').

The beer stop was in the car park, as usual, lots of beer, chocolate & sweets. This time it was Basil who won the golf-ball hunt, and won a lovely prize (!)! We also met up with the knitting circle, who had made it quite a way to the beer stop.

We then headed on our way, back along Lingwood common, back to the road and then home to the pub.

The pub was holding a beer festival – so there was plenty of beer choice once we returned, as well as food. We all had a great chat in the garden under the marquee, and Pulled Out then performed as RA for the day, with down-downs for some of the Pitsea gang, as well as Fourplay, Fag After, the hares, Vicky Vomit & Heapo. One of the other pub visitors happened to be an old hasher – and he kindly bought 359 a drink (as being the oldest hasher & as well as a runner!).

On! On!
