

Run #2100, Monday 4th August 2025, Stanley Rise, Chelmer Village

Hare:- EMF, Tits Up, Big Jugs & Rising Damp

Tonight was our 4th visit to Stanley Rise, and as 22 hashers gathered in the garden for run number 2100, a light rain shower was just passing by. Luckily it soon stopped, and the trail hadn't been washed away (although Tits Up was having some difficulty seeing it!)

We circled up and the GM welcomed everyone, and the hare gave us some scant information about the evenings events (other than the chalk was blue!). We set off on our way, through the many alleyways of Chelmer Village, some of the FRB's going a bit quick – and leaving the walkers to catch up! It was pretty tricky, but finally we ended up back near where we started in the Chelmer Village Green, where the beer stop was waiting, along with Rising Damp, EMF & Big Jugs. Tits Up was meant to be marking the trail and guiding the back-markers, but it seemed as if they were guiding him and showing him the blue markings!

Some of the pack left at half-time, and then the remainder carried on, but even some of them managed a short-cut near the end – when encouraged by the runners!

Back at Stanley Rise, and we all sat in the garden, being watched by the cats. We were fed pizza, and drank beer, and then it was time for the down-downs (once Corpse had lost and found the tray, and then lost and found his walking stick!) There were down-downs for the hares, Frogman (for his 'dodgy' knee) & Cums not a lot (too much running). Rising Damp was welcomed to the hash once again, with a small gift – and a down-down for Dad!

Then onto the raffle – where Small Prick won a prize for NOT buying a ticket, Sucked In won a prize, and then pulled out Pulled Outs ticket for the 'star prize' (fix!).

On! On!
