

Run #2092, Monday 15th June 2025, The 'Compromise Inn', Leigh

Hares:- Boing Boing & Sludge

Tonight the hashers gathered along Highlands Boulevard in Leigh – otherwise known as The Compromise Inn (Boing-Boing's house!). As 7pm neared, several hashers were still stuck in traffic – although they arrived just in time and managed to tag along just as the GM set everyone on their way!

At first we went along the streets – keep thinking we were going to turn towards the woods – and finally we did and then we were in Belfairs. Tiny Tears had joined the hash for the first time in a good few years – and was leading the way – most of the time!

Finally we arrived at the far side of the woods – near the entrance and parking areas – and there was the beer stop. Most of the knitting circle had made it with Sludge – and it was such a hot night, a beer was very welcome.

It was then back to the Inn, a last meander through the woods, before heading back up the streets. Once back, we gathered in the garden – it was a lovely warm evening, and the Inn opened for business, serving a good selection of ales & drinks. Donations were put in the jar, going towards Boing-Boing's charity walk at the weekend – and a total of £293 was collected! Well Done All!

The food was then served – an excellent Paella – made by Boing-Boing – he'd actually made 3 and there was plenty to go round – so I suspect he will be eating it for the rest of the week! Sooty also provided very delicious strawberries from the garden!

Then it was on to the down-downs, with all of the Boing-Boing clan getting one each for their contribution to the evening, Sludge for haring, Fourplay for something or other, and Blowdry for her 950th run!

On! On!
