

I gratefully acknowledge the assistance of the following OFHS members in helping to make the 28th annual meeting a success:

Doris Arnold, Ronny O. Bodine, and Sheila Patterson

Thanks to William Patillo for videotaping the meeting and making tapes and discs available to members.

A special thanks to Joan L. Franks for her gracious invitation to the Brown's Ferry Tavern.

(The Brown's Ferry Tavern was built in 1803 as an Inn/Tavern by Cherokee John Brown. Later it was his home and is now the home/house/museum of Joan L. Franks. The Tavern is a national certified site on the Trail of Tears and is on the National Historic Register.)

Thanks also to my wonderful family (Karen, Joseph and Kambli) for their great amount of help and support in this endeavor.

Thanks to all! Floyd L. Owsley, 2006 Program Director
