

REQUIRED INSPECTIONS FOR ALL DECKS

Footing Inspection – This inspection should be requested after the post holes are dug and/or footing forms are set and before the concrete is poured

Structural Inspection – This inspection should be requested prior to installing decking materials. If a roof over the deck is being installed, an inspection should be requested prior to installation of ceiling material.

Final Inspection – This inspection should be requested once the deck is completed