Welcome to Travel Elite

Travel Simplified. Memories Amplified.

Travel Elite was created for travelers who believe that how you experience a place matters just as much as where you go—and who you experience it with matters even more. This is not mass tourism or rushed itineraries. Travel Elite is a group-travel business rooted in connection, intention, and unforgettable shared moments.

Founded by Bree Byce, Travel Elite was born from years of global exploration, community building, and a deep understanding of what travelers truly crave: ease, authenticity, and belonging. After traveling extensively and organizing trips for friends, families, and communities, Bree saw an opportunity to create something different—group travel experiences that feel personal, welcoming, and elevated without being exclusive.

At its core, Travel Elite is about bringing like-minded, open-hearted people together. Our trips are designed for solo travelers, friends, couples, and curious explorers who want more than a vacation—they want stories, friendships, and memories that last long after the journey ends. Every itinerary balances structure with freedom, curated highlights with space to explore, and group bonding with personal time.

Travel Elite proudly fosters an inclusive and friendly environment, welcoming travelers of all backgrounds, identities, and life stages. You don't need to come with a travel buddy—you will find one here. Many of our travelers arrive solo and leave with lifelong friendships, shared laughter, and a global community they didn't know they were missing.

We handle the logistics, coordination, and planning so you can focus on what matters: being present, connecting deeply, and experiencing the world fully. From vibrant cities and cultural immersions to coastal escapes and bucket-list destinations, every Travel Elite journey is thoughtfully curated with care, creativity, and heart.
