Rules for The Fairfield Iowa Renaissance Faire

Try to cover tent frames, tables, chairs, etc. * Try to have a sign. We know a maker!

To help, we are looking for local people who can make simple cloth sheathes for pop-up tent legs & ceiling frames so vendors can purchase unique affordable covers.

Each new year is an opportunity to improve your look.

I seriously shant:

"Won't the Don'ts"

- ❖ do the drugs, drink the booze, or inebriate herbally or in general during fair hours,
- ❖ light a fire! outside of a raised metal firepit, nor forget water or a fire extinguisher.
- ❖ be aggressively, passive-aggressively, or generally rude to patrons, rennies of any calling, or my own crew & kids (as much as I can help it) in the land of the FIRF.

- ❖ violate people's bodies or property; for example, I won't steal, hide, or break things, cross barriers, enter unoccupied structures, touch people (even casually) without permission, litter, or generally be a nuisance by ignoring verbal/basic social norms.
- ❖ lift any skirts as it violates both person, property, & potentially minors/bystanders.
- ❖ lift any kilts because IT'S THE SAME THING - especially because a kilt worn with underpants under is technically a skirt & I will surely wear underpants with my kilt.
- ❖ smoke in front of patrons; even in my own tent I will exhale my electronic personal pleasure fumes into a handkerchief like proper gentry.
- ❖ bring a PET that puts other pets or people in DANGER; let it be a sound nuisance; leave stinky landmines made of its POO; let it wander freely anywhere at any time.
- ❖ do anything illegal in general, such as but not limited to selling weapons, ammo, or liquor without a license, or go streaking because - cops.

I solemnly shall:

"Do the Do's"

- ❖ dress in a look that matches my booth & wares; mythicals, steampunk, etc is okay
- ❖ bring all I need for my set-up with enough time to be ready before 9:30a each day.
- ❖ hide anything modern from view. Our scrying cuneiforms & soul reader (phones & payment system) can come out but not stay out, especially if visible from the lane.
- ❖ prevent Littles and adults from tripping on my tent ropes by anchoring them near my tent steeply and decorating them AND the stakes with something eye-catching.
- ❖ clean up after myself, my kiddos, my pets, at my booth & campsite through the day.
- ❖ bring enough cash for change for the weekend & a way to recharge my devices.
- ❖ bring drinking water jugs or jugs to fill as a fire extinguisher if I make a firepit fire.
- ❖ drive slowly, cautiously, only where allowed/directed, & never between 9:30a - 6:30p.
- ❖ keep the noise down to a neighborly level after 10pm and totally STFU by midnight.
- ❖ treat all folk with courtesy, avoid folk with whom I cannot, & not repeat rumors .

I hereby seriously swear that I read the things & will do the do's & won't the don'ts above. If my crew or kiddos do the don'ts or don't the do's, I the Owner am responsible for them to my Fair-mily, Patrons, & DIRF for apologies, amends, lawsuits, & evictions.
