Day 1-Join us as we head South on another Excellent Adventure to Wytheville, VA and the Holiday Inn Express & Suites, our home for the evening. Dinner is included and will be at a local restaurant this evening. D

Day 2-After breakfast this morning we'll make our way to the Courtyard by Marriott located in the heart of the Historic District in Downtown Savannah. After a Champagne reception and checking in, we'll head to dinner at the famous Pirates House restaurant, a local favorite. B D

Day 3-Our day starts with an overview tour of Historic Savannah complete with reenactors. We'll enjoy Savannah's Green Squares, monuments, and stories on our own private tour. We'll follow this up with a guided tour of Old Fort Jackson. Old Fort Jackson is a must-see National Historic Landmark. You will experience unique views of Savannah's riverfront and walk on the grounds of one of the oldest brick fortifications on the East Coast. After lunch on our own, we'll visit America's only Prohibition Museum. From the bootlegging to the roots of NASCAR, this museum covers it all. Explore the history behind this era at Savannah's own Prohibition Museum. We will also visit Lafayette Square and walk through the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist as well as a guided tour of the Beautiful Andrew Low House. His daughter in-law, Juliette Gordon-Low, lived here and was the founder of the Girl Scouts. After dinner on your own this evening we will board our trolleys for a Grave Encounters Ghost Tour with a stop at Colonial Park Cemetery and Mercer Williams House made famous by the movie "Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil". B

Day 4-After breakfast and checking out this morning we'll stop at the National Museum of the Mighty Eighth Air Force for a guided tour and lunch at Miss Sophie's in the museum. This afternoon we'll arrive at the Charleston Tea Garden for a 15 minute factory tour, trolley tour of the fields, and a little tea sampling. We will also stop as Angel Oak for a quick picture or two of the oak tree estimated to be between 300-400 years old. Dinner will be in a local restaurant this evening. B L D

Day 5-This morning after another hearty breakfast, we're headed downtown Charleston for a horse drawn carriage tour through the Historic District. We'll experience 25-30 blocks of Charleston's Historic District that includes houses, gardens, mansions, churches and parks. Learn about buildings, history and architecture and the people that make up the city of Charleston. This afternoon we will tour the South Carolina Aquarium which is also a rehab facility for injured sea turtles. We'll follow this with a tour of Magnolia Plantation and Gardens before boarding our ship for dinner and a cruise around Charleston Harbor. B D

Day 6-On our way to Myrtle Beach this morning we'll stop at Brookgreen Gardens. A must-see Myrtle Beach area attraction, named one of the Top 10 Gardens in the US by TripAdvisor. We'll also have a little free time on the Boardwalk before we check in to our hotel. Dinner this evening will find us at the Original Benjamin's Calabash Seafood restaurant, an attraction on its own. From here we're sure to be entertained at the Alabama Theatre and the show "ONE". "ONE" brings audiences and incredible entertainment experience featuring everything from Gospel, Country, Broadway and Pop, to plenty of hilarious family comedy. The talented entertainers will make you feel like you are in New York or Las Vegas. B D

Day 7-After breakfast today we have a guided tour of the Myrtle Beach area with stories of Ghosts, Pirates and Historical Families. You will also get some free time today at Broadway on the Beach, an Entertainment Complex with Theatres, Ripley's attractions, shops and lots of restaurants. Later today we board the Barefoot Princess Riverboat for dinner followed by our entertainment for the evening, The Carolina Opry. This world class variety show will surely keep us entertained. B D

Day 8-After breakfast this morning we are headed to Charleston, West Virginia for the night. Dinner is included and will be at a local restaurant. B D

Day 9-After our last breakfast of the trip we are headed home with lots of new memories, new friends, and ready for some much needed rest from another Excellent Adventure. ☺B
