Join Alan and Gretchen Ziegler on an dive adventure to Indonesia, staying at 2 resorts; Papua Paradise Eco Resort and Gangga Island Resort and Spa. They will be diving the spectacular waters of Raja Ampat Lembah and Bunaken.

Papua Paradise Eco Resort – 8 Nights

Papua Paradise Resort lies along the pristine shoreline of the uninhabited island of Birie, Raja Ampat. The island is teeming with exotic bird life, lush jungle foliage, and a spectacular array of fauna, while the reefs in the surrounding area offer world class diving.

Built in traditional style, Papua Paradise offers an exceptionally high standard of comfort and service. This ideal retreat away from civilization, echoing with only the sound of the birds and the lapping of the waves under the bungalows, Papua Paradise offers simple yet comfortable accommodations and a high standard of service. The resort also offers the only luxury spa in Raja Ampat, a place for healing, relaxation and rejuvenation.

This tailor made paradise for divers is the perfect place to see manta rays, sharks, and shoals of schooling fish, and explore reef slopes with some of the widest diversity of corals in the world. Seek out rare dugongs, hike at sunrise to see the stunning birds of paradise, and meet the wonderful local people of Raja Ampat. All this and more before ending the day with a perfect ocean sunset view from your private balcony.

Gangga Resort and Spa – 5 Nights

Unwind and relax off the tip of Manado in North Sulawesi, Indonesia, called Gangga Island Resort & Spa. Where thirty elegantly furnished & air conditioned wooden bungalows with high ceilings and a spacious veranda overlooking the beach are discreetly set at the base of a jungle covered hill.

An unparalleled scuba diving experience is waiting for you in North Sulawesi! Gangga offers sensational diving where you can get up close and personal with diverse and remarkable sea life from both the Indian and the Pacific Oceans. The resort is an ideal starting point for the diving sites of Bangka Island, Bunaken National Marine Park and Lembah Strait, making it a favorite destination for underwater photographers.

Trip Requirements

- All divers must be certified and have dive insurance such as DAN (Divers Alert Network)
- Divers must review our information below regarding diving with Shared Adventure Tours.

What you need to know before diving with us

- You must be in good health. If you have a condition which could require you to answer "yes" to any of the questions on the health form, you will need a Doctor's sign off. Medical Form
- Your gear must be serviced before you leave. Take your gear to a reputable shop to ensure it is in proper working condition. We cannot guarantee the resort will have the ability to service your gear if a problem is encountered.
- We strongly recommend that you understand how your dive computer operates. While we can help with many, we are not familiar with all. Make sure you bring the instruction manual.

- Refresh your skills - If it has been a while since you have been in the water, schedule a Scuba Review with a dive shop.
- Understand the type of diving we will be doing - Most of our trips are for all levels of diver, but some will require more experience and training. We do our best to provide that information in our travel information session. If in doubt whether a trip is appropriate, please ask and we can review with you.
- Dive within your limitations - Some of the dives on the trip could be out of your comfort level. Never hesitate to let us and the divemasters know if you are not comfortable.
- We require that you abide by the PADI Safe Diving Practices which we will review with you - Safety is our number one priority when diving. We enforce the PADI Safe Diving Practices.
- We enforce buddy diving - All divers must have a buddy and abide by buddy diving rules. Traveling single? No problem. Let us know if you need a buddy and we will make sure you have one.
