March Exhibition: "Celebrating Art and a New Decade"

Yan Sun Art Museum & Gallery is celebrating its eleventh anniversary with a special exhibition featuring works by over 30 artists. For more than a decade, the gallery has served the community by showcasing a wide range of artistic talent and fostering a greater appreciation for the arts. This exhibition brings together a variety of styles and subjects, highlighting creativity and expression.

The opening reception will take place on Friday, March 7, 2025, from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm, with refreshments and live music by Dr. Laura Schumann. Free and open to the public.

"A Studio for Students with a HEART for Art"

Join us this Friday, March 7, 5-8pm, for a fun-filled Student Art Show. Students in our Winter Session classes have been busy creating gorgeous works of art that they can't wait to share with you. From pottery to oil paintings, ages 5 through adult, the walls and gallery will be filled with incredible pieces. Creativity table, snacks and good conversations will be happening. This will also be your chance to sign up for our first stained glass workshops for 2025. Come on down to Julie's ARTery, 53 S 7th Street Zanesville, 5-8pm

Y Bridge Cultural Center

March featured artist is Tim Collins, a graduate from Columbus College of Art and Design. Tim's influences of Picasso, Casado, Basquiat, Megels and Zeigler are often displayed throughout his pieces. Don't forget, classes are offered every Saturday during the month of March! Pottery Class with instructor: Koen Vrij and Dale Hague and youth art with instructor: Bob Grayson

ZAAP - Allison Weeks

Allison Weeks is a newcomer to the Zanesville art community. She quickly found her passion in painting, specializing in commissioned portraits of pets, people, and landscapes. She works primarily in oils and acrylics. Her work has been featured at The Galloping Horse and The Harbor Gallery at Buckeye Lake. Allison was recently named as a recipient of the Bucci Dietz Artist Award. One of her passions is teaching paint parties for people. She loves sharing her joy of painting and having fun in the process!

Allison supports the arts and her community through leadership and service. She serves as a director on the board of the Muskingum County Arts Council and as the vice president of ArtCoz. She is a former secretary of the Carr Center Board and just completed a term as an affiliate director of the Guernsey Muskingum Valley Association of Realtors. She serves on several committees for events, as well as many past appointments.

In addition to her artistic endeavors, Allison works at North Valley Bank as Vice President of Engagement, Development, and Brand Experience. She also likes to give back through projects that aim to make a difference. To this end, she collaborates with organizations like Project Blueprint, Forever Dads, Zane State, Junior Fair Board, Zanesville's Civic League, and Leadership Muskingum to present financial literacy programs that serve the area.
