More Events

Tech Help

Wednesdays 10 a.m. - 2 p.m

Have a question about how to do something on your cell phone? Need help learning how to use your e-Reader or Kindle? Just a little lost on some basic computer functions? Stop in on Wednesdays and chat with Katelyn, she is here to help with basic tech needs!

Chess Club

April 5, 19 10-11:30 a.m.

We welcome the opportunity to work with Lakeview High School students, (Nautical Navigators for LEGO League), and John Creekpaum as they share their love of chess with our community!

Snacks are provided.

Check out Fritz 16, chess software on patron computer three.

Preschool Story Time

Thursdays 10:30 a.m.

Playtime will be from 10:30 to 10:45 (though you are welcome to come earlier). At 10:45, we will have our snack before singing some songs, reading our story, and then expressing ourselves through a story related activity. We hope you can join us for the fun!

April's Theme is: Welcome, Spring!

Tuesday Book Club

April 8 2 p.m.

Julie Shambaugh, one of our friendly volunteers behind the checkout desk, is sharing her love of books and reading each month with a book club. Join her for The Teacher, by Freida McFadden. You do not need to be a member of the library to join the group. If you wish to check out a copy of the book, then you must be a member.

Children's Books

A kid's guide to the night sky / : Simple Ways to Explore the Universe

by John A. Read

"This easy-to-use stargazing guide for kids explores the popular night sky constellations, visits the brightest stars, and tours our solar system. As they learn step-by-step how to find the most fascinating sights in the night sky, readers will learn how the sky changes with each season, when to look for meteor showers, how to see the milky way, and much more!"

Slouch

by Christina Wyman

As the tallest girl in the seventh grade, twelve-year-old Stevie receives unwanted attention that weighs on her self-esteem as she navigates family issues and struggles to stand tall on the debate team

I worked hard on that!

by Robyn Wall
