

Lakeview Library September Newsletter

The Lakeview Area Library is seeking two new board members for a low-commitment, four-meeting-per-year role, ideal for regular users and residents from partner municipalities to help guide the library's future.

Interested individuals are encouraged to complete the Board Member Interest Form to begin the process.

Vacancies for 2027

Do you love your library and want to help shape its future? We are currently seeking two new board members for the coming year! Serving on the board is a wonderful, low-stress way to give back to your community. The commitment is simple: just four meetings a year, along with occasional communication via email and text to keep library operations running smoothly.

To help us best serve our community, we are looking for candidates who:

- Are regular library users so they understand how our library works.
- Help us represent as many of our partner municipalities as possible.

If you are interested in learning more about what the board does, visit our Board Page (<https://lakeviewarealibrary.org/board>). Ready to dive in? Fill out our quick interest form HERE and one of our current board members will reach out to chat with you!

Thank you for helping us support our community's favorite gathering place!

Each month, we feature a title that comes highly recommended by one of our board members.

The August 2023 Notable Nonfiction Pick is:

THE GIRLS WHO FOUGHT CRIME
MAJ. GEN. MARI K. EDER

Join us at the library for a special visit with retired Major General and author Mari K. Eder. She will share stories from her distinguished career and discuss her books, including her forthcoming release, The Girls Who Beat the Odds.

September 3 | 5:00 p.m.

Please note that we are closed Saturday, September 5th, in observance of Labor Day weekend!
Any due dates will be extended!

Children's Books

Owl by Myself

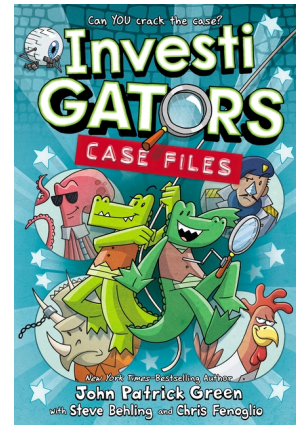

by Book Author

From the New York Times bestselling illustrator of Sleepy Sheepy and The Good Egg comes an irresistible new character who insists on doing everything by himself today. He might not be great at it, but it's fun to see him try. Owl wakes up with a mission for the day: to do everything owl by himself. Like clean his room. (Don't look in that corner. Or that corner...) Brush his teeth. (Just step over that small mountain of toothpaste on the floor.) And pack his backpack for school. (You can never bring too many stuffies to school.) Follow a day in the life of the most adorable owl you've ever seen as he proves he's a big boy ready to take care of himself--or at least tries his best. With art that pairs hilariously with spare text, often showing that Owl is not the most reliable narrator, this book is the perfect blend of humor and warmth. While it's filled with visual gags that will make readers laugh, it ends with a bedtime moment that will make them go aww.

Investigators: Case Files

by John Patrick Green

Special agents Mango and Brash are back again, and this time they'll be asking their readers for help in cracking the case. The gators have been given a brand new add-on for their V.E.S.T.s to help with gathering evidence and making sense of clues--the G.R.I.D. (Gator Reasoning, Inquiry, Deduction)--and with that powerful tool in hand, kids can follow along as they solve six brand-new mysteries. Featuring plenty of familiar faces from investigations past, as well as a few brand new suspects, Mango and Brash and YOU (the reader) will get to the bottom of cases big and small--

I Survived the Night of the Lions, 2025 (I Survived #26)

by Lauren Tarshis

Lauren Tarshis's 26th I Survived book transports readers deep into one of the most breathtaking -- and dangerous -- places on Earth: Botswana's Okavango Delta. This remote wilderness bursts with life, sheltering more lions, elephants, and dazzling (and deadly) creatures than almost anywhere else on the planet. Eleven-year-old Dylan is still reeling from the injury that shattered his all-star Little League dreams back home in Boston. His film-maker older sister offers him the trip of a lifetime: to travel with her as she films a world-famous lion expert in the heart of southern Africa. Dylan's days in the wilds of Botswana are filled with awe and wonder -- elephants splashing in lagoons, leopards growling under star-lit skies, herds of zebras racing through golden grasslands, glittering snakes basking on tree branches -- until disaster strikes. A plane crash hurls Dylan into the unforgiving wilderness, where deadly creatures are on the prowl. Alone, injured, and terrified, Dylan must summon every ounce of strength and as he faces the deadliest predator of all: the African lion.
