

CLUES

Here are the clues to find the letters hidden around Woodgate. They're not in order. You need to rearrange them to find a word.

- I'm not quite finished yet, but soon you'll be able to pick up some sweets, a pint of milk or a loaf of bread. Where am I?

- I'm where you might swing and slide with your friends. Where am I?

- You'll find me where you might go to learn your ABC's and play with your friends. I'm closed at the moment but will be open again soon. Where am I?

- Down at the bottom of Woodgate, I'm home to swans and ducks. Sometimes you'll even find a few dogs taking a swim. Where am I?

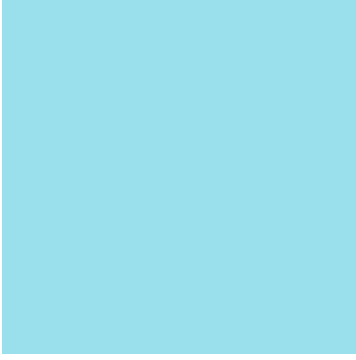

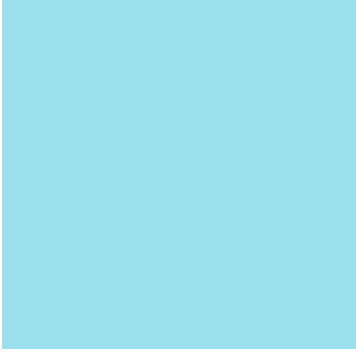

- You'll find me amongst the trees, next to a path, where deer might be spotted and dogs run around. Where am I?

- I can be found where some people might have visited to buy their house on Woodgate. Where am I?

CLUES CONTINUED...

- I'm where, come summer, you might get lost in me. I'm asleep now, but will be the loving home of bees in no time. Where am I?
- I can be found on a path where you might walk down if you want to get to the traffic lights and to cross the road to or from the services. Where am I?
- I'm at a dead-end (for now). Follow the path through some trees and past the lake. Where am I?
- You'll find me amongst some wooden animals, near a grassy mound. Where am I?
- I can be found where you might catch a ride to town, school or work. Where am I?

ANSWER...

NAME:

CONTACT NO:

EMAIL ADDRESS:

Either return your answers to the shop on Sunday 30th between 2pm and 3pm to receive your prize or email woodgate.committee@gmail.com with your answer (prizes can be collected at a different time)

MAP OF WOODGATE

