ANNUAL SERVICE AGREEMENT
March 1, 2025 through February 28, 2026

I. Definitions

- A. KPW - KPW Service Association, Inc
- B. HVAC - Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning
- C. Hybrid Water Heater - Specialized Water Heater using heat pump technology
- D. Insta Water Heater- A tankless water heating system
- E. Uncovered service call – See Section VII
- F. KPW Contractor – the service contractor selected by KPW
- G. New member fee – this is the membership equity fee which is the reserve fund contribution required of new members
- H. Service Fee/Door fee- this is the amount/fee members must pay to the contractor for each service call (see pricing sheet) for all calls. There is no service charge for the first 4 senior care calls. (see senior care)
- I. Pricing cap – the maximum amount KPW will pay out for a covered service as specified on the pricing sheet.

II. Terms of Service:

As a member, you agree to and all terms of this service agreement.

A. KPW Services

- 1. KPW agrees to make repairs and replace available parts as necessary to maintain the covered appliances during the above period, provided such service is necessary due to product failure with normal usage. (subject to caps on pricing sheet)
- 2. KPW agrees to repair and, if necessary, replace the primary HVAC system and water heater (subject to caps on pricing sheet)
- 3. Damage from intervening outside cause is not covered and shall include but shall not be limited to, damages resulting from fire, water, windstorm, hail, lightning, flooding, pest infestation, theft, misuse, abuse, or mold contamination.
- 4. KPW will not reimburse members for services from unauthorized service providers.
- 5. To provide the fastest and most efficient service KPW cannot honor requests for specific service technicians.

B. Member Responsibility

- 1. Members may not use any other service provider than the one contracted by KPW, except for a manufacturer warranty or vendor guarantee.
- 2. The members agree to make the home and items accessible for repairs.
 - The KPW Service Contractor will not move personal belongings to gain access to HVAC unit, appliances, or plumbing.
 - The KPW Service Contractor will not cut down obstructing foliage to repair or replace an HVAC system.
 - Member or authorized individual must be at property to meet repair technicians when they arrive (see service hours section XIII) Technicians are not allowed to enter vacant homes and can't accept keys or use lockboxes.
- 3. The member is responsible for obtaining any association approvals and must communicate with the association regarding those alterations if required.
- 4. The member is responsible for the adequate foundation of the condenser at all times, even if replacement is necessary.

Members are responsible for performing quarterly maintenance which includes maintaining and changing return air filters (KPW recommends MERV 8 or equivalent filters) Owners who do not perform this maintenance (and it is believed the lack of maintenance is responsible for equipment failure) may have service claims denied at the discretion of KPW or our contractor. Members who cannot physically perform this maintenance are encouraged to add the senior care add on which includes filter changes and other maintenance. It is recommended members perform preventative maintenance which consists of annual HVAC checks.

5. Members are required to adhere to our respect clause as stated below:

- Treat our representatives and Service Contractors with respect. We know that requesting service can be stressful, but if you or anyone interacting with us on your behalf are verbally abusive or threaten the safety, well-being, or property of KPW, our employees or other representatives, or our Service Contractors, or if you fail to provide a reasonably safe environment for services to be performed, we may cancel your Plan in accordance with the terms of this Plan Agreement and Applicable Law

C. Appliance Repairs: KPW will repair the appliances specified in the plans.

1. KPW or the KPW Contractor may determine that an appliance is beyond reasonable repair.
2. The KPW decision shall be final as to when an appliance is beyond repair or not worth repair.
3. Once deemed beyond reasonable repair the appliance will be condemned and no other service will be performed for that appliance until it is replaced. To reinstate coverage, the member must supply KPW with a copy of the sales receipt evidencing the purchase of a new replacement appliance and provide serial number. Used appliances are not acceptable as a replacement and will not be covered.
4. In addition, ALL APPLIANCE REPAIRS ARE CAPPED (see pricing sheet) If a repair cost will exceed the cap or the appliance is deemed beyond repair, the member has the following option.
 - The member may pay the amount over the cap and continue the repair Note payment above the cap must be negotiated and paid to the KPW contractor. The contractor will provide an estimate but estimates cannot be guaranteed. Note if this option is chosen no additional repairs will be done on this appliance during the plan year.
5. To reinstate coverage, the member must supply KPW with a copy of the sales receipt evidencing the purchase of a new replacement appliance and provide serial number. Used appliances are not acceptable as a replacement and will not be covered.

III. Primary HVAC Systems:

- A. All KPW plans include repairs to the HVAC unit for primary systems. The KPW plans include replacement coverage with a maximum payout by KPW to the contractor. (See pricing sheet.) Owners having two systems are advised ONLY the primary system is covered. The serial number of the primary system will be recorded and your contract will not cover other HVAC system.
- B. No items shall be replaced for the sole purpose of better efficiency, improper size, cosmetic damage, or for any other preference.
- C. Replacement is available only when necessary and will be done at the discretion of KPW.
- D. All replacements will be done with contractor choice industry standard equivalent unit with brand chosen by contractor.
 1. If an upgrade option is available at the time of replacement, the member may choose to pay the additional amount for the upgrade to the KPW Service Contractor for such an upgrade option. KPW is not a party to upgrades and this negotiation must be done with the contractor. Inquire with the KPW contractor for options (if available)
- E. KPW will cover the cost of one county permit when required for each replacement under this agreement.
 1. Members must make the home accessible for the county inspector.
 2. Members will be responsible for any additional permit fees.
- F. Electrical work and electrical permits are not covered.
- G. KPW is not responsible for additional expenses that may be required to meet current building or zoning codes as imposed by city, county, state, federal, and utility regulations required by law.

- H. Any rebates available for new equipment must be assigned back to KPW.

IV. HVAC maintenance checks:

- A. KPW does not cover these AC Maintenance Checks.
- B. Members who desire an annual check-up of their HVAC unit may obtain a discounted rate from the KPW Service Contractor.
- C. Should an issue arise requiring a repair, that repair will be covered under the existing plan agreement if the repair is provided by the KPW Service Contractor.
- D. Services covered under the plan agreement may only be provided by the KPW Service Contractor.
- E. If the KPW Service Contractor is not utilized for repairs, this agreement shall be canceled.
- F. If owners choose to have AC checks performed by other contractors, repairs will only be covered in this contract if the KPW contractor agrees that there is a problem. The KPW contractor's decision is final on these matters.

V. Hot Water Heaters:

- A. KPW plans include standard electric and gas tank water heaters - replacement coverage is provided with a maximum payout by KPW to the KPW Contractor. (See pricing sheet)
- B. No items shall be replaced for the sole purpose of better efficiency, improper size, cosmetic damage, or for any other preference.
- C. Replacement is available only when necessary and will be done at the discretion of KPW. All replacements will be done with same size equivalent. Unit and brand chosen by KPW.
 - 1. If an upgrade option is available at the time of replacement, the member may choose to pay the KPW Service Contractor for the upgraded option. KPW is not a party to upgrades and negotiations must be done with the KPW contractor.
- D. KPW will cover the cost of one county permit when required for each replacement under this agreement.
 - 1. Members must make the home accessible for the county inspector.
 - 2. Members will be responsible for any additional permit fees.
- E. Electrical work and electrical permits are not covered.
- F. KPW is not responsible for additional expenses that may be required to meet current building or zoning codes as imposed by city, county, state, federal, and utility regulations required by law.
- G. Our plan does not cover repairs to tankless or hybrid water heaters.
 - 1. Replacement water heater coverage will not apply to tankless and hybrid systems but replacement will be for a standard tank water heater subject to maximum payouts. (See pricing sheet)
- H. Any rebates for new equipment must be assigned back to KPW.

VI. Inspections: KPW Inspections are required for:

- A. New membership
- B. Upgrading membership plans
- C. Reinstating lapsed memberships before the start of coverage.
- D. If a home under contract is sold, the contract will terminate at closing and a pro-rated refund may be requested to the seller. Any payments made during the contract period will be deducted from the refund and only full unused months will be refunded. If payouts for service exceed the cost of the contract there will be no refund.
- E. If a home being sold is currently under KPW contract a new owner may apply for membership and must pass an inspection. If the property passes inspection the policy will be issued at a prorated cost for months remaining. Payment is based on full months regardless of day of month purchase.
 - 1. New owners are subject to new member fee, and inspection fees.
 - 2. Once a contract is in force it may be renewed annually as long as the member remains in good standing and pays the renewal fee by the balance due date.
- F. INSPECTION REQUIREMENTS-For new members, the KPW Service Contractor will inspect the HVAC, water heater, and appliances to determine their overall condition.

1. HVAC units must be less than 12 years old and in good working condition.
2. Water heaters must be less than 8 years old and in good working condition.
3. All covered appliances will be checked and must be good working condition.
4. All appliances for the plan being purchased must pass inspection to become a KPW member.
5. If an appliance fails inspection potential members must replace the appliance and provide KPW with proof of replacement of new appliance and resubmit membership application without another inspection.
6. For platinum members-interior exposed plumbing will also be inspected.

VII. Invalid Service Requests

Definition: An invalid service request occurs when a service call is made for issues not covered by this agreement. Members are expected to understand the proper operation of their appliances. This includes, but is not limited to, user error, misuse of appliances or systems.

Policy Overview

- If a service call is determined to be an invalid request, the member will be responsible for the full cost incurred by KPW for that service call, plus a small administrative fee. (Note: The service charge/door fee pays for only a portion of the fee for a call.) When a valid service call is made KPW pays the additional fee to the contractor. If the call is considered invalid the member is charged the remaining amount of the service call. (plus an administrative fee) KPW is charged a full service charge by the contractor regardless if the call is valid or not.

Payment Terms

- Payment for invalid service request is due within 30 days of the invoice date.
- If payment is not received within 30 days, a reminder will be sent.
- If payment is still not received by the 45th day, all services covered under this agreement will be suspended until payment is made in full.
- Late payments will be subject to additional fees or interest.
- If an invoice is unpaid for 60 days the entire contract will be cancelled.

Examples of Invalid Service Requests

Note that this list is not exhaustive, and other situations may also be considered invalid service requests.

- Instructional services: This includes situations where assistance is needed due to user error or a lack of understanding of how to operate an appliance. This includes failure to properly set thermostats, humidistats or lockouts of control panels, etc.
- Misuse of appliances or systems
- Power outages or external electrical issues: Issues beyond KPW's control, such as problems with the power grid or wiring inside or outside your home.
- Appliance system reboots or resets: Simple troubleshooting steps that can be performed by the user.
- Wi-Fi reconnects or network issues: Problems with your internet connection or home network.
- Bad breakers, faulty electrical panels or wiring: This refers to issues within the electrical panel itself, not problems with the wiring connected to it.
- Unplugged appliances or equipment/lack of power to appliance
- Defective outlets or outlets not meeting safety standards
- Cancellation at the door: This includes situations where the member is not present or does not allow access to the property at the scheduled service time.
- Inaccessible homes or failure to provide access to unoccupied units: If we cannot access your home or unit during the scheduled service time, it may be considered an invalid request.
- Returned parts due to inability to complete the service call: If parts are ordered but the service call cannot be completed due to reasons beyond our control, you may be charged for the returned parts and/or restocking fees.
- Entry keys not accepted Technicians may not enter unoccupied houses and cannot use lockboxes for entry.
- Thermostat batteries needing replacement.

- Air filter missing, packed or excessively dirty.

Dispute Process

- If you believe a service request was incorrectly deemed invalid or you want to dispute a charge, you may appeal our decision to KPW in writing (via email to contactkpw@kpwservice.com) within 10 days of the invoice date. Please provide as much detail as possible to help us review your problem.
- KPW will review your appeal and respond within 10 business days.

If your appeal is denied your account will be suspended until invoice is paid.

VIII. Service Hours:

- All services will be rendered during normal business hours between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. KPW normally schedules service either in morning or afternoon windows. (8-12 or 12-5) Members must be available at their properties during these times. KPW or their contractor cannot "call ahead" for service.
- Service fees are due at the time of service and paid directly to the KPW Service Contractor.
- Emergency service after normal business hours, weekends, and holidays is available on a limited basis until 8:00 p.m.
 - There are only three emergency services:
 - Severe water leaks. (for platinum plans)
 - HVAC is not working or leaking
 - Water heater leaks
 - The primary refrigerator is not cooling.
 - No other services are considered emergencies.
 - Emergency calls received after 8:00 p.m. will be scheduled for the following day.

IX. Gas Leaks

- If you smell gas inside or outside your unit, call Tampa Electric immediately at (813)275-3700. They are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

X. Loaner Refrigerators and Air Conditioners:

- If necessary and if available, the KPW Service Contractor may supply a loaner for a fee.
- Members must make arrangements with the KPW Service Contractor to pick up the loaner no later than two weeks after it is delivered. (The only exception to this is the rare time that the replacement equipment [supply chain issue] is not available and this will be handled on a case by case basis).
- Loaner appliances and portable air conditioners are used at your own risk.
- KPW and the KPW Service Contractor are not responsible for any loss or damage.
- Members must clean all loaner appliances before returning them.
- Members will be charged full retail price if the loaner equipment is not returned.

XI. General Liability:

- Member absolves KPW of all liability for injury to person or persons or for property damage.
- Claims for such damage, if any, shall be asserted by the member directly against the KPW Service Contractor and handled through the contractor's insurance company.
- KPW and KPW Service Contractor will not be liable for:
 1. any loss, damage, or injury resulting from delay in service under this agreement
 2. Damage to roofs from walking on them
 3. Damage to the ceiling due to water leaks unless such damages are the direct result of KPW Service Contractor's negligence.

XII. Right to Refuse:

- A. KPW reserves the right to refuse any application for unapproved appliances.
- B. KPW reserves the right to cancel and/or refuse membership due to non-compliance with contract terms.
- C. KPW reserves the right to cancel and/or refuse membership for unsafe or unsanitary conditions in the member's home.
- D. KPW may refuse to issue a policy for anyone who is deemed to violate our respect clause above in section II.B.6.

XIII. Cancellation/Home Sales

- A. If you cancel your agreement, or sell your property, you will receive a prorated refund of the contract fee (based on number of full months left on contract) that deducts all costs to KPW (including any charges against the plan to date) and reflect an early termination fee of $35.00. No portion of the new member fee or inspection fees are refundable. If you cancel a contract and later choose to purchase another contract you will be considered a new member in the next contract. (see section XIV)
- B. In a home sale situation the new owner may apply for a KPW service contract as a new member subject to passing an equipment inspection and meeting equipment age limitations. (see section XIV)

XIV. New Members (New Member Fee applies):

- A. KPW prorates contracts for customers who miss the open enrollment period. Contact KPW for pricing
- B. New members must pay an inspection fee and have an inspection before a contract can be accepted and issued. In the event that an inspection cannot be scheduled before March 1, the board may consider this as an extenuating circumstance and extend the enrollment period until the inspection can be performed. These situations will be handled on a case by case basis by the KPW board.
- C. All inspection results are valid for 15 days from the time of inspection and will determine if a contract will be issued.
- D. KPW Service Contractor will only inspect items serviced under this agreement. (See pricing sheet.)
- E. All new members must pay the new member fee which is effectively a buy in to KPW and goes toward our reserves. This is nonrefundable upon cancellation.

XV. Membership Renewal

- A. Renewals are due no later than March 1st of every year.
- B. Renewal payments received after March 1st but before April 30th will be subject to a $20.00 late fee.
- C. As of April 30, memberships will be considered lapsed and cancelled.
- D. KPW does not reinstate contracts. If a contract lapses and is cancelled you will have to apply as a new member, pay the new member fee and will be subject to inspection fees and inspection requirements, as determined by the board. (See Inspections above)
- E. Renewals must be paid by check or money order. KPW does not accept cash. KPW no longer accepts credit cards for contracts due to the high cost of credit card fees which are charged by credit card processors. A return check fee will be assessed for any returned check to cover charges we incur from returned checks.
- F. You must contact KPW by March 1 to renew your contract.
- G. KPW reserves the right to refuse contract renewals.
- H. Members in good standing may renewal indefinitely.

XVI. Non-refundable fees:

- A. All fees for inspections
- B. Late fees
- C. Invalid service call fees
- D. New member fees

XVII. Contact Information:

- A. All members should provide an active email address, if available.
- B. By supplying an email address and accepting this agreement, you grant permission to KPW to use email as a method of communication for business purposes and the distribution of newsletters.
- C. Your email address will not be sold.
- D. Notice of contract renewals will be sent by US Mail to the address of record.
- E. Most KPW information is also available on our website www.kpwservice.com Those without internet access may pick up paper copies of communications at the KPW office.
- F. Any complaints or comments should be sent by email to contactkpw@kpwservice.com KPW will endeavor to reply within 10 business days
