Editor's Notes

Brian Miller - War Whoop Editor

This issue is the same size as the last issue except this time with more color. I received an email from Red Carpet and they are wanting to place 2 full page color ads in each issue. This allows us to print some more color photos of some of our events.

Steve has written an article about his time at the Porsche Parade in French Lick. He also included several photos and I have included them with his article. The War Bonnet Gourmet is back and this time with a very tasty chicken recipe. I can't wait to try it out!

We have increased another 4 members this issue and it probably won't be long until we reach 400 total members (primary and affiliate).

I am still looking for my Miami Blue 718. They seem to be pretty rare. I am probably going to need the base model as the S or GT seem to be pretty expensive. I can find plenty of black or silver and even a couple of red ones that would be real fun to own but I am still looking for that Miami Blue.

It is also about time to start looking at new board members. We have Vince Howie rolling off although he can run again, Brian Swope is rolling off but is able to run again but we have Martin Engster who has completed two terms. If any of you would like to run for a board position, let us know.

The calendar of events have been updated so be sure to check out inside the front cover and pick an event to attend or two. Hope to see all of you at an event soon.

Please call to schedule your appointment NOW!

President's Podium

Steve Pistole - War Bonnet President

In my first newsletter article I wrote about Porsche being a cut above. That was on display during the recent Porsche Club of America Parade event in French Lick Indiana. What a nice place. I did not attend the Parade event at this venue a few years ago. Now I know why they came back.

You're not going to run across this place by accident. It's 40 miles from the interstate and about 100 miles from an airport. The farm land in this part of Indiana is grade A and the crops look like they should be pictured in an agricultural text book. The French Lick hotel was an older style with a big front porch including an old style dixieland band playing to welcome the Porsche crowd. The interior was ornate and very nice. It looked like something out of The Great Gatsby. Upon trying to check in I found my room was ready but at the other hotel. The other hotel was a about two miles away and turn this way and turn and turn. I was less than pleased thinking I got the Motel 6 version. I could not have been more wrong. The other hotel was the West Baden Springs hotel. It's actually in an adjoining town. It looks like a slightly smaller version of the Astrodome with six stories of rooms on the outside and a very nice lobby area in the middle.

The building and grounds are a story in and of themselves. Initially built in the early 1900's it included a 2/3 mile bicycle track along with a spa and the five star attractions of the day. It was donated to the Army during WWI for use as a hospital. After the war it was back in business and times were booming until the stock market crash. The property was eventually sold to the Jesuits for one dollar. Some accouterments were sold away and it was used as a school until maintenance became too much. The property went downhill until the Cook family got involved. In a joint venture with the State they invested over $ 500 million dollars in the restoration. It reopened in 2006. Guests, state conferences and a casino keep the place going.

PCA put together several excursions to various local attractions. I took a tour of the Dallara Indy car Factory in Indianapolis. PCA had the tours reserved for the club members and included a catered lunch. The Indy racecar is virtually all various types of carbon fiber and can be yours for about $ 700,000.00, plus motor. That makes a Porsche Turbo S look like a deal.

With a car show, tours, dinners, rallies, hospitality, art show, kids program, e-racing area and Porsche factory display there is something for everyone. The event is well attended and not everything went perfectly but all in all PCA has to get a grade of A for putting on a first class event. Next years Parade is in the Poconos. Hmmm.

As far as the trip goes my 82 911 SC did well with a 26 MPG average over 1800 plus miles on primarily E 10 fuel. The AC has been improved but still a work in progress. Fortunately until the last few hours the weather was not really hot. She turned to 210,000 miles between Tulsa and OKC. I think I'll keep her.

Enjoy your car and your club.

Skillet Balsamic Chicken Breasts

By Laura Swope

Ingredients

- 1 1/2 tablespoons olive oil
- 4 boneless, skinless chicken breasts, pounded to 1-inch thickness
- salt and fresh ground pepper, to taste
- 2 tablespoons butter, divided
- 1 small yellow onion, diced
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1/2 teaspoon Italian seasoning
- 1 teaspoon granulated sugar
- 2 teaspoons balsamic vinegar
- 1/2 cup chicken broth
- 1/2 cup heavy cream
- chopped fresh basil or parsley, for garnish

Instructions

1. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat.
2. Pound chicken breasts down to 1-inch thickness; season chicken with salt and pepper; add to the heated oil and cook for 5 minutes, undisturbed.
3. Flip chicken breasts over; add 1 tablespoon butter and continue to cook for 4 to 5 more minutes, or until cooked through. Internal temperature should register at 165°F.
4. Remove chicken breasts from skillet and set aside; keep them covered.
5. Add remaining butter to the skillet.
6. Stir in diced onions and cook for about 6 to 8 minutes, or until very soft. Stir frequently. If they start to burn, lower the heat.
7. Stir in the garlic and cook for 20 seconds.
8. Stir in Italian seasoning, sugar, and balsamic vinegar; cook for 2 minutes.
9. Whisk in the chicken broth; continue to whisk and scrape up all the browned bits from the bottom of the skillet.
10. Increase the heat to High and cook for about 2 to 3 minutes, or until the liquid has reduced a bit.
11. Lower heat to medium and whisk in the cream; whisk continually for about 30 seconds so that the sauce doesn't start to boil.
12. Let sauce come to a simmer; add the chicken breasts back to the skillet. Cook for 1 to 2 minutes, or just until chicken is heated through.
13. Remove from heat. Sauce will thicken as it stands.
14. Garnish with basil and serve.
