Editor's Notes

Brian Miller - War Whoop Editor

This issue we have the usual War Bonnet Gourmet column and we also have the long awaited "In the Spotlight" article that was promised from the last issue.

I had to put my old turbo on the front cover of this issue and it was a little sad seeing a new driver behind the wheel. I am sure he will take good care of it and I hope he enjoys the car as much as I had. Hope to see you at one of the events.

A black and white advertisement for the 37th Annual Guthrie Road Celebration. The ad features a central shield-shaped graphic with "OKLAHOMA" at the top and "U S 77" in the middle. To the left of the shield, there is text: "Presented by Tim's Body Work #timsbodywork Mineral Wells Park 901 S. Division Registration $-01 $00 Prizes & Trophies at $130 CAN. TRUCK & BIKE SHOW". Below the shield, there are three images: a dark classic car, a light classic car, and a Volkswagen van. At the bottom, there is text: "Food Trucks, Goodie Bags, Games, Prizes, Music, Great Rides, Friendly People, Beautiful Shaded Park, Custom, one-of-a-kind, handmade trophies." The bottom of the ad is framed by a thick border with the text "37TH ANNUAL GUTHRIE ROAD CELEBRATION SEPTEMBER 12, 2020".

Hello Porsche Friends! You'll be getting a fast-firing, all-over-the-map, scatter-patterned column from me this time as I have so many random things to mention. Let's start off by seeing if I have been successful in telling the future. This was written May 26th 2020. Restaurants had just opened about 2 weeks ago and we had not yet had our first event since Covid-19 lockdown. I think by the time we have read this, we have had an autocross, a Sonic drive-in dinner and a couple of neat drives.

I do hope since this mess began in April that all of you have done well and if not, then my sympathies are with you.

We have tried to fill our pcarwarbonnet.org website with fresh info, lots of pics, some cool videos and a survey or two. The survey results are in and it looks like a tour to the Southeastern part of the state is in order.

Our Tour Chairperson, Matt Porter and I scouted a great trip towards the Arkansas border so stay tuned for this special hiking trip we will plan soon as well.

In some long forgotten car news, Vince's 916 clone is loaded tonight and will be delivered to the paint shop May 27th which means it may be painted by the time you read this. Let me tell you, glueing fiberglass fenders to steel wheel wells and prepping the curves is not for the hobbyist body-man. Hopefully you will get to see this in person as all the pieces will come together quickly now with the upholstery almost done.

So now I will wrap with inviting you to submit pictures to Martin the Webmeister to have your car and family car pics uploaded to our website. Please sign up for a new event this year. Come to something different and feel free to reach me anytime with your questions or comments.

In The Spotlight - Jeff Cordell

I caught the Porsche bug back in the 80's when I saw a 930 turbo with a whale tail in the mall, I swear I stared at that car for over an hour imagining my self behind the wheel thinking someday it would be mine.

I saw my first 944 in the movie 16 candles, I thought it was the coolest car ever. Time went by, I got married had kids etc..thought I'd never be the owner of a Porsche until I met by chance Brian who informed me he worked on Porsches, my passion was immediately reignited as he showed me pictures of his past and present projects. I knew I had to have one.

My budget is small so my 911 I saw in the mall will be forever out of reach but Brian had a 944 that was perfect for me in every way.

Once I realized my dream was going to come true I found a Porsche jacket on Ebay and bought it before I bought the car! Shortly after Christmas I was behind the wheel of my first Porsche, I say first Porsche because for my birthday I'm buying a 944 turbo! Brian took me on a test drive with me and my daughter who was scrunched up in the back seat down some back road in Guthrie. I was sold as soon the turbo kicked in and my daughter was snorting with laughter as we were pressed against the seats.

Heres hoping I'll have many more Porsche adventures in near future, its truly an exciting time.

The War Bonnet Gourmet

Taco Stuffed Shells

This Mexican inspired main dish is great for picky eaters! Everyone, including the kids, will love it. It's quick, easy and made with simple ingredients: ground beef, cream cheese, sauce, pasta shells and more cheese. It's also cheap and budget friendly!

Ingredients

- 22-24 jumbo pasta shells (a little more than half a box)
- 1 lb ground beef
- 1 packet taco seasoning
- 1 cup mild salsa
- 4 ounces cream cheese
- 1 (10oz) can red enchilada sauce
- 2 cups Mexican cheese blend (or cheese of choice)

Instructions

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
2. Cook the shells according to the package directions (it's okay if they are a little firm since you will also be baking them). Once cooked, lay them out individually so that they don't stick together.

3. In a skillet, cook and chop the ground beef until brown; remove any excess grease. Add the salsa and taco seasoning to the beef and combine.

4. Add the cream cheese to the beef and stir until the cream cheese is thoroughly melted (if you cut the cream cheese into smaller pieces it melts a lot faster).

5. Pour about half of the enchilada sauce onto the bottom of a 9x13 baking dish.

6. Stuff the shells with the beef mixture and place them into the sauced dish. Once finished, drizzle with the remaining enchilada sauce and top with cheese.

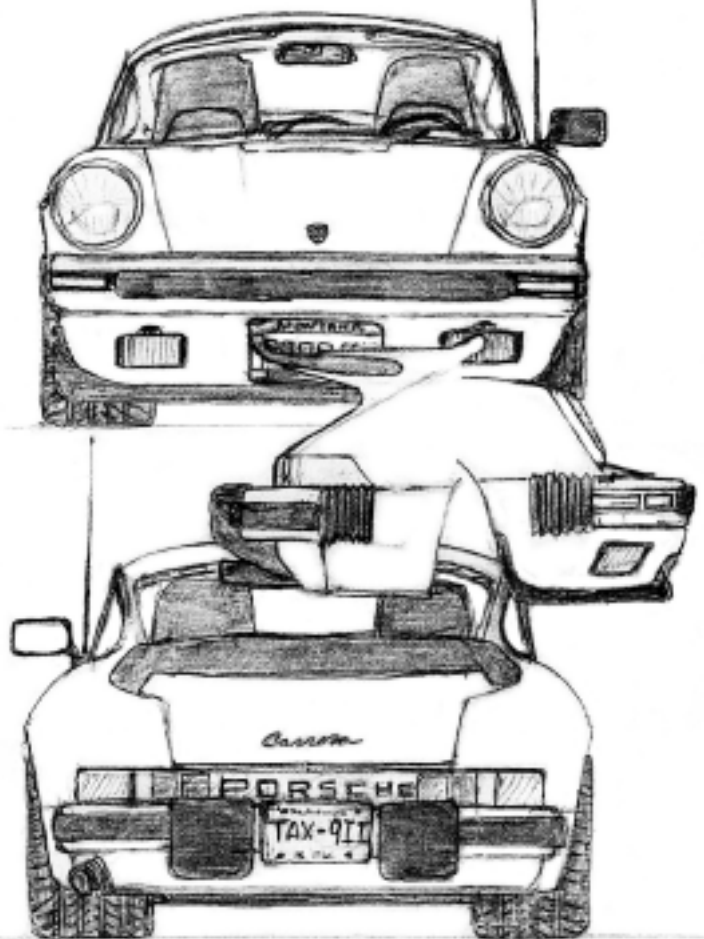

7. Bake for about 20 minutes. Enjoy!
