4 MEMBERSHIP

Any person who supports the objects or purposes of the Association is eligible to apply to become a member.

An individual who has not reached the age of 15 years is not eligible to apply for a class of membership that confers full voting rights.

4.1 Application for Membership

- 4.1 A person who wants to become a member must apply in writing to the Association.
- 4.2 The application must include a member's nomination of the applicant for the membership.
- 4.3 The application must be signed by the applicant and the member nominating the applicant.
- 4.4 The applicant must specify in the application the class of membership, if there is more than one, to which the application relates.

4.2 Approval or Rejection of the Application

- 4.2. The committee must consider each application for membership of the Association and decide whether to accept or reject the application.
- 4.3. Subject to subrule (3), the committee must consider applications in the order in which they are received by the Association.
- 4.4. The committee may delay its consideration of an application if the committee considers that any matter relating to the application needs to be clarified by the - applicant or that the applicant needs to provide further information in support of the application.

- 4.5 The committee must not accept an application unless the applicant –
 - a. is eligible under rule 4; and
 - b. has applied under rule 5.
 - 4.6 The committee may reject an application even if the applicant –
 - a. is eligible under rule 4; and
 - b. has applied under rule 5.
 - 4.7 The committee must notify the applicant of the committee’s decision to accept or reject the application as soon as practicable after making the decision.
 - 4.8 If the committee rejects the application, the committee is not required to give the applicant its reasons for doing so.

An applicant for membership of the Association becomes a member when –

- a. The committee accepts the application; and
- b. The applicant pays any membership fees payable to the Association under rule 12.

Guidance notes – Becoming a member

The applicant immediately becomes a member, when rule 4 has been fulfilled, and is entitled to exercise all the rights and privileges of membership, including the right to vote (if applicable), and must comply with all of the obligations of membership under these rules.

Act requirement – Member to receive rules

Section 36(1) of the Act provides that the association must give each person who becomes a member of the association a copy of the rules in force at the time their membership commences.

Guidance note – Format of rules provided

It is acceptable for the association to provide a copy of the rules to new members by electronic transmission or providing the details for the website where the rules may be downloaded. A hard copy must be provided at the member requests that the rules be provided in that manner.

4.3 Membership Categories

- 4.5.4 The owed amount may be recovered by the Association in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the Association.

The rights of a member are not transferable and end when membership ceases.

4.6 Membership Fees

- 4.6.1 The committee must determine the entrance fee (if any) and the annual membership fee (if any) to be paid for membership of the Association.
- 4.6.2 The fees determined under subrule (1) may be different for different classes of membership.
- 4.6.3 A member must pay the annual membership fee to the treasurer, or another person authorised by the committee to accept payments, by the date (the due date) determined by the committee.
- 4.6.4 If a member has not paid the annual membership fee within the period of 3 months after the due date, the member ceases to be a member on the expiry of that period.
- 4.6.5 If a person who has ceased to be a member under subrule (4) offers to pay the annual membership fee after the period referred to in that subrule has expired –
- a. the committee may, at its discretion, accept that payment; and

- b. if the payment is accepted, the person's membership is reinstated from the date the payment is accepted.

5 REGISTER OF MEMBERS

Act requirements – Register of members

Section 53 of the Act requires an incorporated association to maintain a register of its members and record in the register any change in the membership of the association. Any change to the register must be recorded within 28 days after the change occurs.

Under section 53(2) of the Act the register of members must include each member's name and a residential, postal or email address.

Under section 54 of the Act a member is entitled to inspect the register free of charge. The member may make a copy of, or take an extract from the register but has no right to remove the register for that purpose.

Under section 56 of the Act the management committee is authorised by to determine a reasonable charge for providing a copy of the register.

- 5.1 The secretary, or another person authorised by the committee, is responsible for the requirements imposed on the Association under section of the Act to maintain the register of members and record in that register any change in the membership of the Association.
- 5.2 In addition to the matters referred to in section 53(2) of the Act, the register of members must include the class of membership (if applicable) to which each member belongs and the date on which each member becomes a member.
- 5.3 The register of members must be kept at the secretary's place of residence, or at another place determined by the committee.
- 5.4 A member who wishes to inspect the register of members must contact the secretary to make the necessary arrangements.
- 5.5 If –
 - a. A member inspecting the register of members wishes to make a copy of, or take an extract from, the register under section 54(2) of the Act; or
 - b. member makes a written request under section 56(1) of the Act to be provided with a copy of the register of members.

The committee may require the member to provide a statutory declaration setting out the purpose for which the copy or extract is required and declaring that the purpose is connected with the affairs of the Association.

6 SUSPENSION OR EXPULSION

- 6.1 The committee may decide to suspend a member's membership or to expel a member from the Association if –
 - a. the member contravenes any of these rules; or
 - b. the member acts detrimentally to the interests of the Association.
- 6.2 The secretary must give the member written notice of the proposed suspension or expulsion at least 28 days before the committee meeting at which the proposal is to be considered by the committee.
- 6.3 The notice given to the member must state –
 - a. when and where the committee meeting is to be held; and

- b. the grounds on which the proposed suspension or expulsion is based; and
 - c. that the member, or the member's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the proposed suspension or expulsion.
- 6.4 At the committee meeting, the committee must –
- a. give the member, or the member's representative, a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the proposed suspension or expulsion; and
 - b. give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
 - c. decide –
 - i.* whether or not to suspend the member's membership and, if the decision is to suspend the membership, the period of suspension; or
 - ii.* whether or not to expel the member from the Association.
- 6.5 A decision of the committee to suspend the member's membership or to expel the member from the Association takes immediate effect.
- 6.6 The committee must give the member written notice of the committee's decision, and the reasons for the decision, within 7 days after the committee meeting at which the decision is made.
- 6.7 A member whose membership is suspended or who is expelled from the Association may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the Committee's decision under subrule (6) give written notice to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator under rule 6-12.
- 6.8 If notice is given under subrule (6-12), the member who gives the notice and the committee are the parties to the mediation.

Guidance note – Suspension or expulsion of a member

Once the committee has decided to suspend or expel a member under rule 6.5 the member is immediately suspended or expelled

- 6.9 During the period a member's membership is suspended, the member
- a. loses any rights (including voting rights) arising as a result of membership; and
 - b. is not entitled to a refund, rebate, relief or credit for membership fees paid, or payable, to the Association.
- 6.10 When a member's membership is suspended, the secretary must record in the register of members –
- a. that the members' membership is suspended; and
 - b. the date on which the suspension takes effect; and
 - c. the period of the suspension.
- 6.11 When the period of the suspension ends, the secretary must record in the register of members that the member's membership is no longer suspended.

The procedure set out in this Division (Pt4, Div3) (the grievance procedure) applies to disputes –

- a. between members; or
- b. between one or more members and the Association.

The parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days after the dispute has come to the attention of each party.

6.12.1 If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required by rule 19, any party to the dispute may start the grievance procedure by giving written notice to the secretary of –

- a. the parties to the dispute;
- and
- b the matters that are the subject of the dispute.

6.12.2 Within 28 days after the secretary is given the notice, a committee meeting must be convened to consider and determine the dispute.

6.12.3 The secretary must give each party to the dispute written notice of the committee meeting at which the dispute is to be considered and determined at least 7 days before the meeting is held.

6.12.4 The notice given to each party to the dispute must state –

- a. when and where to committee meeting is to be held; and
- b. that the party, or the party's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the dispute.

6.12.5 if –

- a. the dispute is between one or more members and the Association;
- and
- b.any party to the dispute gives written notice to the secretary stating that the party –
 - i. does not agree to the dispute being determined by the committee; and
 - ii. requests the appointment of a mediator under rule 6.12.8,

the committee must not determine the dispute.

6.12.6 At the committee meeting at which a dispute is to be considered and determined, the committee must –

- a. give each party to the dispute, or the party's representative, a reasonable opportunity to make written or oral (or both written and oral) submissions to the committee about the dispute; and
- b. give due consideration to any submissions so made; and
- c. determine the dispute.

6.12.7 The committee must give each party to the dispute written notice of the committee's determination, and the reasons for the determination, within 7 days after the committee meeting at which the determination is made.

- 6.12.8. A party to the dispute may, within 14 days after receiving notice of the committee's determination under subrule (1)(c), give written notice to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator.
- 6.12.9 If notice is given under subrule (3) each party to the dispute is a party to the mediation.
- 6.12.10 This Division (Pt 4, Div 4) applies if written notice has been given to the secretary requesting the appointment of a mediator –
- a. by a member; or
 - b. by a party to a dispute under rule 6.12.
- 6.12.11 If this Division (Pt 4, Div 4) applies, a mediator must be chosen or appointed under rule 6.12.12.
- 6.12.12 The mediator must be a person chosen –
- a. if the appointment of a mediator was requested by a member by agreement between the Member and the committee;
- or
- b. if the appointment of a mediator was requested by a party to a dispute by agreement between the parties to the dispute.
- 6.12.13 If there is not agreement for the purposes of subrule (1)(1) or (b), then, subject to subrules (3) and (4), the committee must appoint the mediator.
- 6.12.14 The person appointed as mediator by the committee must be a person who acts as a mediator for another not for profit body, such as a community legal centre, if the appointment of a mediator was requested by –
- a. a member; or
 - b. a party to a dispute or
 - c. a party to a dispute and the dispute is between one or more members and the Association.
- 6.12.15 The person appointed as mediator by the committee may be a member or former member of the Association but must not –
- a. have a personal interest in the matter that is the subject of the mediation; or
 - b. be biased in favour of or against any party to the mediation.
- 6.12.16 The parties to the mediation must attempt in good faith to settle the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- 6.12.17 Each party to the mediation must give the mediator a written statement of the issues that need to be considered at the mediation at least 5 days before the mediation takes place.
- 6.12.18 In conducting the mediation, the mediator must –
- a. give each party to the mediation every opportunity to be heard; and
 - b. allow each party to the mediation to give due consideration to any written statement given by another party; and
 - c. ensure that natural justice is given to the parties to the mediation throughout the mediation process.
- 6.12.19 The mediator cannot determine the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- 6.12.20 The mediation must be confidential, and any information given at the mediation cannot be used in any other proceedings that take place in relation to the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- 6.12.21 The costs of the mediation are to be paid by the party or parties to the mediation that requested the appointment of the mediator.

Note for this rule:

Section 182(1) of the Act provides that an application may be made to the State Administrative Tribunal to have a dispute determined if the dispute has not been resolved under the procedure provided for in the incorporated association's rules.

If –

- a. mediation takes place because a member whose membership is suspended or who is expelled from the Association gives notice under rule 6(7); and
- b. as the result of the mediation, the decision to suspend the member's membership or expel the member is revoked, that revocation does not affect the validity of any decision made at a committee meeting or general meeting during the period of suspension or expulsion.

3. Special committee meetings may be convened by the chairperson or any 2 committee members.

Notice of Committee Meetings

- a. Notice of each committee meeting must be given to each committee member at least 48 hours before the time of the meeting.
- b. The notice must state the date, time and place of the meeting and must describe the general nature of the business to be conducted at the meeting.
- c. Unless subrule (4) applies, the only business that may be conducted at the meeting is the business described in the notice.
- d. Urgent business that has both been described in the notice may be conducted at the meeting if the committee members at the meeting unanimously agree to treat that business as urgent.

13.10 Absent Chairperson

The chairperson or, in the chairperson's absence, the deputy-chairperson must preside as chairperson of each committee meeting.

If the chairperson and deputy chairperson are absent or are unwilling to act as chairperson of a meeting, the committee members at the meeting must choose one of them to act as chairperson of the meeting.

The procedure to be followed at a committee meeting must be determined from time to time by the committee

The order of business at a committee meeting may be determined by the committee members at the meeting.

- 13.11 A member or other person who is not a committee member may attend a committee meeting if invited to do so by the committee.

A person invited to attend a committee meeting –

- a. Has no right to any agenda minutes or other document circulated at the meeting; and
- b. Must not comment about any matter discussed at the meeting unless invited by the committee to do so; and
- c. Cannot vote on any matter that is to be decided at the meeting.

Act requirements – Material personal interests of committee members

- Under section 42 of the Act a member of the committee who has a material personal interest in a matter being considered at a committee meeting must:

- As soon as he or she becomes aware of the interest, disclose the nature and extent of his or her interest to the Committee;
- Disclose the nature and extent of the interest at the next general meeting of the association.
- Under section 42(3) of the Act this rule does not apply in respect of a material personal interest
 - a That exists only because the member –
 - b *is an employee of the incorporated association; or
 - c Is a member of a class of persons for whose benefit the association is established; or
 - d That the member has in common with all, or a substantial proportion of, the members of the Association.
- Under section 43 of the Act a member of the management committee who has a material personal interest in a matter being considered at a meeting of the management committee must not be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting or vote on the matter.

Under section 42(6) of the Act the association must record every disclosure made by a committee member of a material personal interest in the minutes of the committee meeting at which the disclosure is made.

14 CONFERRING BY ELECTRONIC MEANS

- 14.1 The presence of a committee member at a committee meeting need not be by attendance in person but may be by that committee member and each other committee member at the meeting being simultaneously in contact by telephone or other means of instantaneous communication.
- 14.2 A member who participates in a committee meeting as allowed under subrule (13.11) is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, the member is taken to have voted in person.
- 14.3 No business is to be conducted at a committee meeting unless a quorum is present.
- 14.4. If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the notified commencement time of a committee meeting –
 - a. in the case of a special meeting – the meeting lapses; or
 - b. otherwise, the meeting is adjourned to the same time, day and place in the following week.

Note for this rule:

If these model rules are adopted, the quorum for a committee meeting is as notified to the Commissioner under section 7(4)(d) or 29(5)(d) of the Act.

1. Each committee member present at a committee meeting has one vote on any question arising at the meeting.
2. A motion is carried if a majority of the committee members present at the committee meeting vote in favour of the motion.
3. If the votes are divided equally on a question, the chairperson of the meeting has a second or casting vote.
4. A vote may take place by the committee members present indicating their agreement or disagreement or by a show of hands, unless the committee decides that a secret ballot is needed to determine a particular question.
5. If a secret ballot is needed, the chairperson of the meeting must decide how the ballot is to be conducted.

- 14.4.3 The committee must ensure that minutes are taken and kept of each committee meeting.
The minutes must record the following –
- a. The names of the committee members present at the meeting;
 - b. The name of any person attending the meeting under rule 13.11; the business considered at the meeting;
 - c. Any motion on which a vote is taken at the meeting and the result of the vote.
- 14.4.4 The minutes of a committee meeting must be entered in the Association's minute book within 30 days after the meeting is held.
- * The chairperson must ensure that the minutes of a committee meeting are reviewed and signed as correct by –
- a. the chairperson of the next committee meeting
 - * When the minutes of a committee meeting have been signed as correct they are, until the contrary is proved, evidence that –
 - i. the meeting to which the minutes relate was duly convened and held; and
 - ii. the matters recorded as having taken place at the meeting took place as recorded and
 - iii any appointment purportedly made at the meeting was valid.

Note for this rule:

Section 42 (6) of the Act requires details relating to the disclosure of a committee member's material personal interest in a matter being considered at a committee meeting to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

1. To help the committee in the conduct of the Association's business, the committee may, in writing, do either or both of the following –
 - a. appoint one or more subcommittees;
 - b. create one or more subsidiary offices and appoint people to those offices.
2. A subcommittee may consist of the number of people, whether or not members, that the committee considers appropriate.
3. A person may be appointed to a subsidiary office whether or not the person is a member.
4. Subject to any directions given by the committee –
 - a. a subcommittee may meet and conduct business as it considers appropriate; and
 - b. the holder of a subsidiary office may carry out the function given to the holder as the holder considers appropriate.

in this rule –

- a Non-delegable duty means a duty imposed on the committee by the Act or another written law
- b The committee may, in writing, delegate to a subcommittee or the holder of a subsidiary office the exercise of any power or the performance of any duty of the committee other than –
- c The power to delegate and
- d A non-delegable duty.
- e A power or duty, the exercise or performance of which has been delegated to a subcommittee or the holder of a subsidiary office under this rule, may be exercised or performed by the subcommittee or holder in accordance with the terms of the delegation.
- f The delegation may be made subject to any conditions, qualifications, limitations or exceptions that the committee specifies in the document by which the delegation is made.
- g The delegation does not prevent the committee from exercising or performing at any time the power or duty delegated.

- h Any act or thing done by a subcommittee or by the holder of a subsidiary office, under the delegation has the same force and effect as if it had been done by the committee.
- l The committee may, in writing, amend or revoke the delegation.

15 ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- 1 The committee must determine the date, time and place of the annual general meeting.
- 2 If it is proposed to hold the annual general meeting more than six months after the end of the Association's financial year, the secretary must apply to the Commissioner for permission under section 50(3)(b) of the Act within four months after the end of the financial year.
- 3 The ordinary business of the annual general meeting is as follows –
 - a. To confirm the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since then if the minutes of that meeting have not yet been confirmed;

1. Subject to subrule (2), the books and any securities of the Association must be kept in the secretary's custody or under the secretary's control.
2. The financial records and, as applicable, the financial statements or financial reports of the Association must be kept in the treasurer's custody or under the treasurer's control.
3. Subrules (1) and (2) have effect except as otherwise decided by the committee.
4. The books of the Association must be retained for at least 7 years.

Act requirements – Record of office holders

Under section 58 of the Act an association must maintain a record of –

- The names and addresses of the persons who are members of its management committee; or hold other offices of the association provided for by its rules;
- The name and address of any person who is authorised to use the common seal of the association (if it has a common seal); and
- The name and address of any person who is appointed or acts as trustee on behalf of the association.

Under section 58 of the Act the association must, upon the request of a member of the association, make available the record for the inspection of the member. The member may make a copy of or take an extract from the record but does not have a right to remove the record for that purpose

The record of committee members and other persons authorised to act on behalf of the Association that is required to be maintained under section 58(2) of the Act must be kept in the secretary's custody or under the secretary's control.

Note for this rule

Section 58 of the Act –

- a. Sets out the details of the record that an incorporated association must maintain of the committee members and certain others; and
 - b. Provides for members to inspect, make a copy of or take an extract from the record; and
 - c. Prohibits a person from disclosing information in the record except for authorised purposes.
1. Subrule (2) applies to a member who wants to inspect –
 - a. The register of members under section 54(1) of the Act; or
 - b. The record of the names and addresses of committee members, and other persons authorised to act on behalf of the Association, under section 58(3) of the Act; or
 - c. Any other record or document of the association.
 2. The member must contact the secretary to make the necessary arrangements for the inspection
 3. The inspection must be free of charge.
 4. If the member wants to inspect a document that records the minutes of a committee meeting, the right to inspect that document is subject to any decision the committee has made about minutes of committee meetings generally, or the minutes of a specific committee meeting, being available for inspection by members.
 5. The member may make a copy of or take an extract from a record or document referred to in subrule (1) (c) but does not have a right to remove the record or document for that purpose.

Note for this subrule:

Sections 54(2) and 58(4) of the Act provide for the making of copies of, or the taking of extracts from, the register referred to in subrule (1) (a) and the record referred to in subrule (1) (b).

6 The member must not use or disclose information in a record or document referred to in subrule (1)(c) except for a purpose –

- A. That is directly connected with the affairs of the Association; or
- B. That is related to complying with a requirement of the Act
- C.

Note for this subrule:

Sections 57(1) of the Act impose restrictions on the use or disclosure of information in the register referred to in subrule (1)(a) and record referred to in subrule (1)(b).

A committee member must not publish, or cause to be published, any statement about the business conducted by the Association at a general meeting or committee meeting unless –

- a. The committee member has been authorised to do so at a committee meeting; and
- b. The authority given to the committee member has been recorded in the minutes of the committee meeting at which it was given.

29 DISTRIBUTION OF SURPLUS PROPERTY

Act requirements – Distribution of surplus property.

- Under section 24(10) of the Act surplus property can only be distributed to one or more of the following –
- An incorporated association;
- A company limited by guarantee that is registered as mentioned in the Corporations Act section 150;
- A company holding a licence that continues in force under the Corporations Act section 151;
- A body corporate that at the time of the distribution is the holder of a licence under the Charitable Collections Act 1946;
- A body corporate that –
- Is a member or former member of the incorporated association; and
- At the time of the distribution of surplus property, has rules that prevent the distribution of property to its members;
- A trustee for a body corporate referred to in paragraph €;
- A co-operative registered under to Co-operatives Act 2009 that at the time of the distribution of surplus property, is a non-distributing co-operative as defined in the Act.

1. In this rule

Surplus property, in relation to the Association, means property remaining after satisfaction of –

- a. The debts and liabilities of the Association; and
 - b. The costs, charges and expenses of winding up or cancelling the incorporation of the Association but does not include books relating to the management of the Association.
2. On the cancellation of the incorporation or the winding up of the Association, its surplus property must be distributed as determined by special resolution by reference to the persons mentioned in section 24(1) of the Act.

Note for this rule

Section 24(1) of the Act sets out a provision that is implied in these rules describing the entitlements to which the surplus property of an incorporated association may be distributed on the cancellation of the incorporation or the winding up of the association. Part 9 of the Act deals with the winding up of incorporated associations, and Part 10 of the Act deals with the cancellation of the incorporation of incorporated associations.

If the Association wants to alter or rescind any of these rules, or to make additional rules, the Association may do so only by special resolution and by otherwise complying with Part 3 Division 2 of the Act.

Note for this rule

Section 31 of the Act requires an incorporated association to obtain the Commissioner's approval if the alteration of its rules has effect to change the name of the association.

Section 33 of the Act requires an incorporated association to obtain the Commissioner's approval if the alteration of its rules has effect to alter the objects or purposes of the association or the manner in which surplus property of the association must be distributed or dealt with if the association is wound up or its incorporation is cancelled.

Guidance note – Alteration of rules

Amendments to the rules do not take effect until required documents are lodged with the Commissioner, even if the amendments do not require the approval of the Commissioner under section 31 or section 33. The required documents must be lodged within one month after the special resolution is passed.
