Why License Bible Studies?

It is an important discipleship Builder

Lifeway research constantly polls churches, both in the US and occasionally globally.

Almost half (46%) of adult group ministry leaders report that Bible study is the primary objective for their groups. Fewer say the primary purpose is equipping (16%), worship (14%), community (12%), service (7%), or evangelism (5%). It also showed that pastors believe discipleship is important, but they do not have a specific plan for discipling their membership.

A recent US poll asked pastors about the methods they use to disciple adults in their congregation, and on average, churches use more than four methods. After the worship service and Sunday School, the next two top rankings were Bible study groups and women's groups.

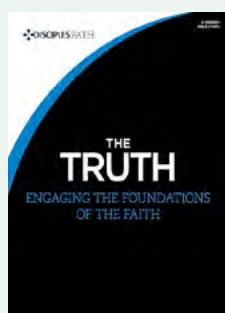

This specialty catalog presents our client's recent and top-selling Bible studies for you to evaluate for your publishing program, with the goal of equipping Christians in your market with biblical engagement to live for Jesus and impact the world. ■

Rahab

Rediscovering the God Who Saves Me | BY SHADIA HRICHI

Step into the story of Rahab, a woman who witnessed no miracles and knew none of God’s laws. She merely heard of God’s power—and believed. The story of Rahab appears after God commissions Joshua to lead the Israelites after the death of Moses. No sooner do the people come to the edge of the Promised Land than God puts the whole drama on hold to tell us the story of a Canaanite prostitute. This interruption of the conquest story gives us our first glimpse into the theological significance of Rahab’s story.

SHADIA HRICHI is a passionate Bible teacher and award-winning author. She holds a master’s in biblical and theological studies as well as a master’s in criminal justice. Shadia has served on faculty for a number of Christian Writers conferences.

Set Apart
A 6 Week Study of the Beatitudes

By Jennifer K. Dean

ISBN: 9781596694347
192 Pages
Pub Date: 8/1/2015

In this six-week Bible study of the beatitudes, author Jennifer Kennedy Dean examines the promise of blessedness in Christ's Sermon on the Mount. We were made for holiness, and this core concept of the beatitudes is accessed through a praying life—a life lived in the present-tense power of God. Only when we continually pursue holiness does blessedness come, and we discover the power and fulfillment of the promise of God.

Living a Praying Life
Open your life
to God's Power and Provision

By Jennifer K. Dean

ISBN: 9781596692916
240 Pages
Pub Date: 9/6/2010

This revised, 13-week study tackles the complex theological questions: If God is sovereign, why pray? If prayer is not a way to change God's mind, what is it? Prayer is a way, Jennifer illustrates, for God to send His power and provision into the world through His people. The study takes a detailed look at prayer's purpose, process, promise, and practice.

Jen Cowart continues her study of the very messy lives of biblical heroes – people who, like us, made mistakes, but found God was able to use them in powerful ways. They all play a significant role in the biblical narrative, but their stories are far from perfect. Through the lives of rival sisters like Leah and Rachel, or sisters with very different personalities like Martha and Mary, we see God chooses to use people who don't have it all together.

Heaven and Earth

Advent and the Incarnation

BY WILL WILLIMON

In the Advent season, heaven seems so close as we remember that a tiny baby in a manger is God in human form coming to show us the Way. God's choice of incarnation allows us to reflect on the mystery that Christ is the full revelation of God instead of being one who talks about God or one who speaks for or acts as God. But, no, Christ is God. In Heaven and Earth, beloved pastor and scholar Will Willimon explores the idea of Jesus as both fully human and fully divine this Christmas.

Experiencing Christmas

Christ in the Sights and Sounds of Advent

BY MATT RAWLE

Christmas is when God surrounded the divine with senses of his own. That first noel was when God had eyes to see suffering, ears to hear our cries, and hands to hold those in need, and all of these senses were bundled in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. “This will be a sign to you,” the angel told the shepherds, and they traveled to Bethlehem and found a child. What signs do you see during the Advent and Christmas season that point you to the divine?

Reaching the Lost with the Love of Christ

BY JIM COWART, JENNIFER COWART

In The One, by pastors Jim and Jennifer Cowart, readers will learn to respond to God's great love for us by reaching out to the ones in our lives who are lost, not literally but spiritually— those who have not yet discovered the rich love God has for them. God sent his Son to earth on a rescue mission, “to seek and to save the lost”. And Jesus has entrusted us, his disciples, to carry on this mission until his return. The book and the corresponding study explore Luke 15 where Jesus tells stories about rejoicing when lost things are found—specifically, a lost sheep, a lost coin, and a lost child.
