

Safety starts with labels

There are many different types of ATV / Sbs vehicles and they all handle differently, depending on their basic design and how they are equipped. Take time to understand how your machine works, make sure you read your owners manual and pay special attention to the warning labels displayed on your vehicle.

www.quadsafety.org