

Why You Gotta Be Like That?

You saw me there and gave me a ride
Instant bond once I got inside
So, you drove and drove and we talked and talked
We were more than friends when we said goodbye

Now, we're textin everyday
Talkin every night
When I get to hold you close
The best time of my life

But you started holdin back
Maybe you got scared
Could you be worried
This might be real?

Now, you hate that
I'm callin
Can't stand that
You're stallin

Why you gotta be like that?
Tell me would it be so bad
To be loved by me

Why you gotta act that way?
Tell me why it's not okay
To be loved by me

Why you gotta be like that?
Tell me is it really so bad
To be loved by me

You have this sweetness inside
There's somethin about your way
You're just so huggable...so, so lovable
How could I stay away?

I need to send this message
Write you this note
Can't let go these feelins
Won't give up this hope

Babe, I know you're holdin back
Did you get scared?
Are you worried
This might be real?

I hate that
You're stallin
Don't hate that
I'm fallin

Why you gotta be like that?
Tell me would it be so bad
To be loved by me

Why you gotta act that way?
Tell me why it's not okay
To be loved by me

Why you gotta be like that?
Tell me is it really so bad
To be loved by me

You're just so huggable
Just so sweet
Why you doin this to me?

You're just so lovable
Just so sweet
Why you doin this to me?

Tell me would it be so bad
Tell me why it's not okay
Tell me is it really so bad
Just tell me why it's not okay

To be loved by me
