

Just Don't Do It Again

It wasn't meant to last
Never expected this
But it became so real
And evolved into bliss

This is new ground
Not felt this before
Holding hands and piggybacks
How could I want for more?

But you had to go
Said you needed to leave
Guess you weren't happy
You weren't happy with me

Then you came back

Just don't do it again
Don't break my heart
I'm letting you back in, see
Don't tear it apart

Just don't do it again
The way you gutted me
The next time, not hating you
Won't be so easy

Just don't do it again
Just don't do it again
Just don't do it again
Just don't do it again

It's getting back to normal
Things are like they were before
Holding hands and piggybacks
How could I want for more?

But those doubts, yeah they creep
They keep and keep on crawling
Spinning in my head
Make me want to wallow

I can't help but wonder
Trying not to believe
Are you having those thoughts?
Are you going to leave?

All because you came back

Just don't do it again
Don't break my heart
I'm letting you back in, see
Don't tear it apart

Just don't do it again
The way you gutted me
Next time, not hating you
Won't come so easily

Just don't do it again

Just don't do it again
Don't break my heart
I'm letting you back in, see

Just don't do it again
The way you gutted me
Next time, not hating you
Won't come so easily

Just don't do it again
You better, never do it again
Just don't do it again
Don't you fucking do it again

Just don't do it again
