

I'm Too Much

I drink too much
Smoke so much
Bitch too much
And fuss so much

I love too much
Hate so much
I feel too much
And I hate this stuff

I go so much
I'm slow too much
Gone so much
Don't sleep too much

Just can't help
That I push and push
And I push and push

Push and push
And push so much
Just can't help that I push so much
Just can't help that I'm just too much

You were never enough
I know, I'm a cunt
But it's not your fault
I need too much

I push and push
And push like a cunt
And I push and push
And push so much

I'm sorry to say
You were never enough
But it's not your fault
I'm just too much

I fuck too much
Fuck up so much
Feel too much
And see so much

I stink too much
Suck so much
Think too much
And I think this sucks

I sink so much
Float too much
I'm fake so much
And hope too much

Just can't help
That I push and push
And I push and push

Push and push
Just can't help that I push so much
Just can't help that I'm just too much

You were never enough
I know, I'm a cunt
But it's not your fault
I need too much

I push and push
And push like a cunt
And I push and push
And push so much

I'm sorry to say
You were never enough
But it's not your fault
I'm just too much

[Slower Tempo]

Push
Yeah, I push
I push and push
and I push too hard

I'm pushing and pushing
And pushing so far
I push and push
And I'm pushing too hard

Push and push
And push so far
Push and push
And I push too hard

[Faster Tempo]

Just can't help
That I push and push
And I push and push

Push and push
And push so much
Just can't help that I push so much
Just can't help that I'm just too much

You were never enough
I know, I'm a cunt
But it's not your fault
I need too much

I push and push
And push like a cunt
And I push and push
And I push so much

I'm sorry to say
You were never enough
But it's not your fault
I'm just too much
