Trestle Board — February 2026

LaBelleLodge379.org

Greetings from the East

Brothers all!

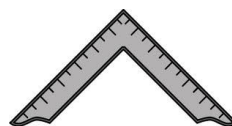

First, I would like to thank Worshipful Izzy Lopez for his leadership over the past few years: "You've done well, Boss!" I would also like to thank the unsung heroes of LaBelle Lodge: Illustrious Ed Lanham, our faithful Secretary and Bob Coleman, our faithful Treasurer. These two brothers, weather all the storms, the changes, and the ups and downs of the lodge year in and year out. Also. Honorable Kevin Gourley, for keeping not just LaBelle Lodge, but most lodges in our districts, informed through several Trestle Boards. These brothers are sometimes unnoticed, but indispensable.

I want to thank you for putting your trust in me one more time as Master of the LaBelle Lodge. Thank you! I look forward to a great year with a wonderful group of elected and appointed officers. I foresee great things happening in LaBelle No. 379 when I look over the up coming leadership of this great Lodge.

I pray that it is God's will that we have a banner year!

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Bill — Your 2026 Worshipful Master of LaBelle No. 379 F&AM

DID YOU KNOW?

George Washington has two birthdays because Great Britain and its colonies switched from the Julian calendar to the more accurate Gregorian calendar in 1752, adding 11 days and shifting the new year's start, which moved his birth date from February 11, 1731 (Old Style) to February 22, 1732 (New Style). This calendar change meant his original date was adjusted by a year and 11 days to align with the new system, creating two dates for his birth.

For the first two decades of his life, Washington celebrated on February 11th, but after 1752, February 22nd became his recognized birthday, a date that continued to be celebrated and eventually became a federal holiday (now known as Presidents' Day).

Chaplain's Corner

Last year while waiting in a doctor's office I picked up a ragged, torn piece of a magazine, I think it was the AARP, to glance at an article about a lady in California who was rescuing horses. What struck me about the article was one of her quotes that most of us know but so few of us practice.

The writer of the article told how the woman had a glamorous career where she accumulated all the material and external things that are supposed to make us happy. But she wasn't content so at age 50 she quite her dream job and completely changed her life and lifestyle.

It was a nice and well-written article as most AARP pieces are, but as far I was concerned it was hinged with Ho-hum. In other words, I wasn't interested and didn't care that she changed her lifestyle. A lots of people quit jobs and move on to other careers. In fact, I know a lady in West Virginia who quit her long-time teaching job to begin writing stories about farmers, miners and the families of farmers and miners. Unfortunately her stories didn't sell so when she was flat broke she married a city fireman and started driving a school bus.

At any rate, the California lady also got married and with her new husband bought a ranch where they could raise rescue horses. Still the magazine story lacked any great interest for me and just as I was ready to toss it back on the table, I saw the lady's quote: "Rescuing horses has taught me a lot about patience, forgiveness and living in the moment. But the main thing is you can't achieve happiness by collecting all the material things our world offers."

As Masons, we know she's right. Doing for others, animal and human, and seeing the light come back into someone's eyes is our greatest obligation and pleasure.
