GREETINGS FROM THE EAST

Brothers all: As I sit to write this note, I am looking forward to the "Gathering" on June 30th. Two districts - 22 and 24; three lodges - LaBelle Lodge No. 379, the host; Sugarland Lodge No. 281; and Fort Myers Beach Lodge No. 362, are coming together in a unique showing of comradery. If you are unaware, Sugarland and Fort Myers Beach, meet on the same nights and are never able to visit one another, so LaBelle will host. One visiting Master will open, and the other visiting Master will close, while I sit in the middle and keep it legal. It promises to be quite the night!

We continue to have a decent turnout on Lodge nights. Both ends of the Lodge have been refurbished, thanks to Brother Craig Hampton. We only have the front and the kitchen counter to be completed, after which, I will leave the rest to the incoming Master.

I thank all the Brothers who have helped make our Lodge so welcoming during the last few years. We have accomplished a lot and I am blessed to have been here at the right time to play a small part in its happening.

I thank you Brothers all for the support and hope to see you at Lodge - "regularly".

Yours in Christ,
W.: Bill Maddox, PM
Worshipful Master

FROM THE DESK OF THE SECRETARY

Summer greetings, my Brothers. While many Lodges go dark in the summer, LaBelle remains open and operating at full bore. We continue to grow with new members, transfers, dual members and plural members being added each month. Ours is a very active Lodge in our community, being involved in numerous programs and work in the public. Attendance at our regular meetings has been good and growing. For our Lodge to continue to grow we need all of you to become active and to play a part in our endeavors.

Please check to make sure your 2022 dues are paid, There are several Brothers who have not yet paid and reminder letters have been sent out, unfortunately the next step is suspension and we really don't want to do that.

See you in Lodge!!

Fraternally,
W.: Nicholas S. Fidanza, PM
Secretary

Happy Independence Day!

4th of July

From our June 14th Entered Apprentice Degree:

Front Row: EA Brothers Mark Branaman (Sugarland No. 281) and Logan Stockwell (LaBelle No. 379)

Back Row: Worshipful Master RL Marsh (Sugarland No. 281), R.:W.: Ed Lanham (LaBelle No. 379), and Worshipful Master Bill Maddox (LaBelle No. 379)

THE CHAPLAIN'S NOTES

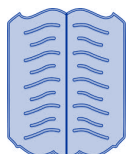

You may want to try this thing I enjoy doing: On meeting nights, or at any other gathering where a group of brothers are assembled, I enjoy fading back into a corner and watching. Some of my brothers are nearly as tall as the trees of Lebanon; a few are just over stump-height. Some are stout and some are lean. Some are dark complexioned and others have lighter skin; some are “new blood” and others are nearly ancient. Some are quiet natured and others boisterous.

The important thing, and the thing every Mason has in common, whether he is an active participant or “card carrying”, is that acceptance into our Fraternity is based on a man’s inner self, character and integrity. Our outward appearance, be what it may, is different from everyone else and in Masonry and that is okay. After all, looks are only skin deep. Let us all strive to see the inside of the man next to us.

Masonry is useful to all men: The talented have the opportunity to use those talents, to the less learned because it offers important instruction, to the young because it provides good examples, to a man of the world it furnishes noble and useful recreation, for travelers he will find friends and brothers.
