GREETINGS FROM THE EAST

Brothers All,

It has been a great month at LaBelle Lodge No. 379. We have two Brothers studying their E.A. catechism. We have another young man being initiated on the 14th of December, along with the election of officers.

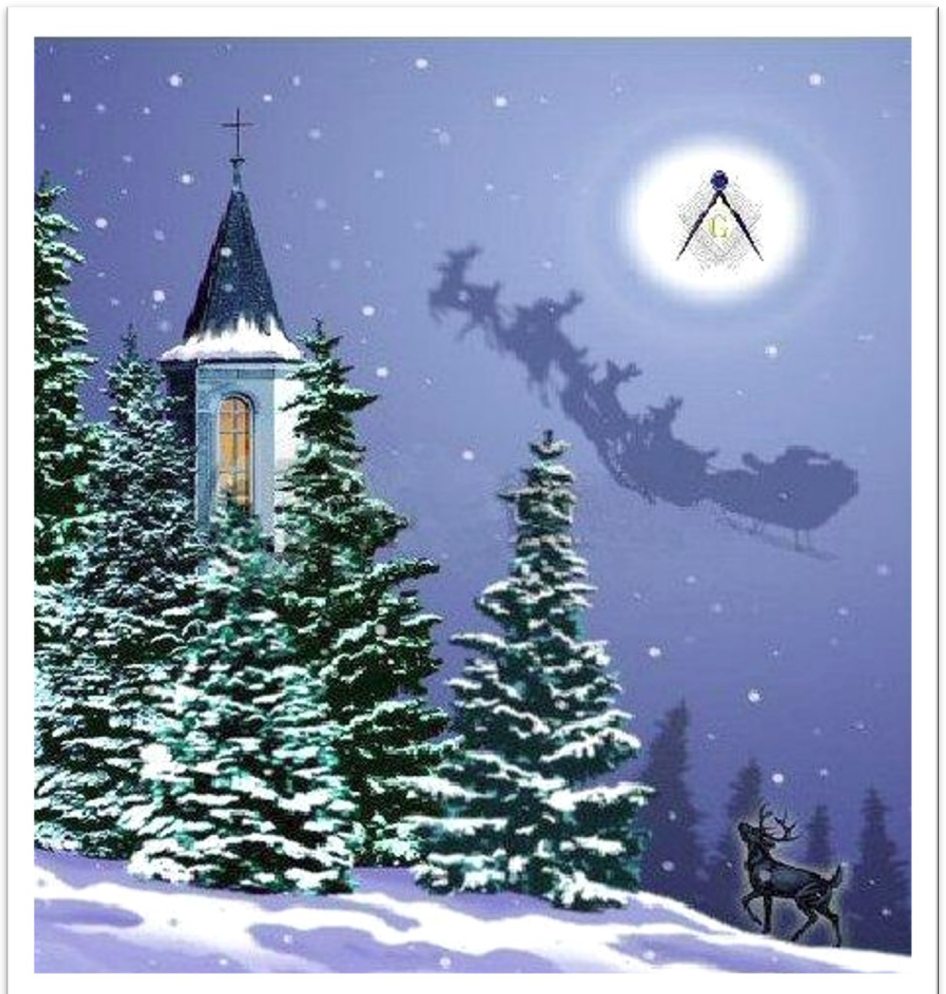

We have managed to get the new auditorium chairs from Lehigh Acres installed. Several Brothers have built a wheel chair ramp at Worshipful Ray's house. Thank you one and all for helping at each of these endeavors.

Brothers, we need a good showing for the Outdoor Degree on the 4th, at Worshipful Curt Harden's home. Then on the 14th, here at LaBelle Lodge we have an E.A. Degree. On January 11th, we will have the installation of Officers. And, last but not least, on February 8th, the District Deputy Grand Master's official visit.

Keep Worshipful Ray Navor and Bobbie in your prayers. Brother Ray's health is not good. Also, keep Worshipful Kevin Gourley in your prayers, as he has some health procedures coming up.

I do hope everyone had a good Thanksgiving, and I pray you all will have a very Merry Christmas, and prosperous New Year.

Yours in Christ,
Bill Maddox, PM
Worshipful Master

FROM THE DESK OF THE SECRETARY

Seasons greetings, My Brothers. I hope this message finds you all safe and in good health. As we move into the Holiday season we are all so busy it seems to fly by, but take some time to come to Lodge and meet with your Brothers; all will benefit. At this time of year it is right to take some time to express thanks for all of the gifts in our lives and LaBelle Lodge No. 379 is certainly a gift to those whom we support and educate. The Lodge has taken on a new look and it looks great. We will be entering a new Mason on 12/14, as well as electing officers for 2022, so come out and spend the evening with us.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!

Fraternally,
Nicholas S. Fidanza, PM
Secretary

THE CHAPLAIN'S NOTES

No matter who we are, hard times have a way of finding us. When they do the way forward can look hopeless and confusing. We will hesitate, we will lack leadership, we'll be confused, and we may even be fearful.

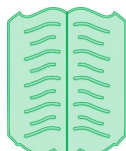

It isn't fun and it helps little for others to remind you that you're not the only one, or been there done that. What we need is someone to take our hand—either literally or figuratively—and guide us through the rough times.

Comfort can also be found in Psalm 77. It tells of hopeless situations that have confronted people and how God led them through and gave them hope. As believers, Masons have an even greater reason to hope. God meets our deepest needs and our brothers are there helping us through the difficult times.

It was the memory of God's mighty acts that prompted the writer of this Psalm to pray in his own despair.

"Almighty Father of us all, despite our despair we praise You for your mighty deeds and worship You as the Waymaker and the Miracle Worker. We extol You to continue to us your strength and power. AMEN. So Mote It Be!"

Phillip Keyes
Chaplain
