

The Hidden History of the Democratic Party

The events of 2020 have shaken Americans to the core. How did we get here? To answer the question, we need to examine our nation's past, to learn from mistakes and find solutions for issues we face today.

The Democratic party has a racist history. Though this is not disputed, they have gone to great length to hide it, by erasing it from textbooks and replacing it with misleading propaganda.

Nevertheless, it is well documented, there is even a 13 volume set of congressional investigations in the Library of Congress from 1872, titled: Report of the Joint Select Committee to Inquire into the Condition of Affairs in

the late Insurrectionary States, that details the Democratic party's history and their connection to the KKK.

First, it's important to point out, that calling attention to the Democratic party's racist history isn't a criticism of Democrat voters. They are good hearted folks, who just want a better life for their families and for their fellow Americans.

It is also not an endorsement of the political Right. Most Republican politicians of today are puppets, indebted to special interests, they are in Washington to simply enjoy their status.

1829 – the Democratic party is founded, on a platform of individual rights, state sovereignty and pro slavery.

1830 – Democratic president Andrew Jackson creates the Indian Removal Act, that forced indigenous people to leave their homeland. (Trail of Tears)

1857 – In a case of Scott vs. Sandford, the court ruled that slaves aren't citizens, they are property. The seven justices, voting in favor were Democrats, the two, who dissented were Republicans.

1860 – 11 slave states secede from the Union, Democrats start the civil war.

1863 – Republican president Abraham Lincoln signs the Emancipation Proclamation.

1863 – Republicans elect their first Hispanic Governor, Romualdo Pacheco, of California.

1865 – Lincoln was assassinated, his vice president, Andrew Johnson, a Democrat assumes the presidency, who is opposed to integrating the newly freed slaves.

1865 – Republicans pass the 13th Amendment, that permanently outlaws slavery.

1865 – Democrats establish “Black Codes”, a state and local statutes, intended to marginalize blacks and keep them in indentured servitude. Poll taxes and literacy tests prevented them from voting.

1865 – Confederate veterans found the KKK, to oppose the Republican party’s integration of blacks. It’s first Grand Wizard, was a Democrat, named Nathan Bedford Forrest.

The KKK lynched 3446 blacks and 1289 white Republicans during its 86 year history.

“Everyone who shoots down negroes in the streets, burns negro school-houses and meeting-houses, and murders women and children by the light of their own flaming dwellings, calls himself a Democrat. In short, the Democratic Party may be described as a common sewer and loathsome receptacle into which is emptied every element of treason, North and South, every element of inhumanity and barbarism which has dishonored the age.”

— Gov. Oliver Morton of Indiana 1860s

1868 – Republicans pass the 14th Amendment, giving blacks citizenship. It was opposed by the Democrats.

1868 – Republicans pass the 15th Amendment, giving blacks the right to vote. No Democrat supported it.

1868 – KKK Grand Wizard is honored at the Democratic National Convention.

1869 – Reconstruction ended, Democrats re-established white supremacy in the South with Jim Crow laws, that legalized segregation. that would take another 100 years to abolish.

1954 – Republican lawmakers outlawed segregation in public school, opposed by state Democrats. Republican president Eisenhower sent in federal troops to enforce the law.

1959 – First Republican Asian Senator, Hiram Fong is elected.

1964 – President Johnson successfully runs an ad, titled “Confessions of a Republican”. Democrats learned that by accusing Republicans of racism, even without evidence, they can gain political power.

1964 – The Republican controlled Congress passes the 1964 Civil Rights Act, as an extension of the Republicans 1957 and 1960 Civil Rights Acts. Democratic Senators filibustered the bill for a record 75 days.

The Democratic party claims that the Republicans are the racists today, because the parties “switched”, the racist Southern Democrats became Republican in 1964. There was no “party switching”, only two Democrats became Republicans, Miles Goodwin and Thurgood Marshall, who had a change of heart. Those, who were Republicans, remained Republicans.

What changed was the Democrat's tactics toward African Americans. By the 60's blacks achieved political power and the Democrats realized they could no longer openly suppress their right to vote, so they decided, "if they'll vote, they might as well vote for us."

*- "I'll have those n*s vote Democrat for the next 200 years."*

- "These Negroes, they get pretty uppity these days and that's a problem for us.....we've got to give them a little something, just enough to quiet them down, not enough to make a difference."

Lyndon B Johnson 1963

Before 1964, Democrats regarded African Americans as violent beasts, who had no aptitude for learning. After 1964 they treated them with gentleness, kindness and sympathy, as their pets..

History books portray LBJ, as the "Great Emancipator and Civil Rights Hero". In reality, he only supported the Civil Rights Acts, because it was politically expedient.

In private, he communicated how he was going to addict blacks to government dependence, break up their families, destroy their lives and futures and make them into worthless people.

Sadly, 50 years of democratic policies have destroyed the black family, created the worst schools for blacks, that resulted in high illiteracy and dropout rates and the “school to prison pipeline”, encouraged gang violence and other crimes in inner cities and produced generations of single parents.

Their policies were designed to keep blacks down and set them up for failure. The welfare state they implemented created dependence, a “democratic plantation”. Ceaseless propaganda is teaching young blacks a victim mentality and demoralizes them, while pretending to uplift them.

The Democratic establishment is a fraud, their underlying racist attitude toward blacks has not changed, they continue to mislead African Americans and use them for their political purposes.

The Democrats have gotten away with this for too long, they need to be exposed for what they are, for social justice to truly become reality.
