

B. G. Hennessy

Children's Book Author

I've always loved a good question. When I begin working on a book I start by looking for a question that a child would ask: What would happen if there was a dinosaur in my backyard? Sometimes the question is more practical: How do you build a road? When I am working on the Corduroy books I look for the right question for Corduroy: What should I get Lisa for her birthday? How can I find a home? What did happen to my missing button? Once I find the right question I play with finding the right answer.

B. G. Hennessy is the author of over 38 picture books published in over ten languages. She is the author of fifteen books based on Don Freeman's beloved Corduroy bear. Read more about her on her website: www.bghennessy.com, Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, or YouTube. You can find out about her Read Aloud Library project at: www.theresalapforthat.com.