

SeaVibe Foundation & Equus Rides

MARINEQUINE

Internship Opportunity

in Applied Marine & Equine Professions

A unique interdisciplinary Caribbean Sea experience!

Study. Swim. Snorkel. Scuba. Saddle. Share.

Live and work alongside marine and terrestrial sea horses.

Earn academic credit and professional experience.

Think. Do. Become!

SEAVIBE.ORG

Position Objectives:

- Applied Equine Studies & Marine Sciences on the Caribbean Island of St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands caring for 20 horses on 80 acres by the sea
- Gain Leadership Skills as an Equine Assisted Learning (EAL) and Marine Science Educator, Mentor, Tour Guide, and Horse Training Apprentice
- Develop Educational Exhibits: Comparison Studies on the biomechanics, physiology, and metabolism of marine mammals and terrestrial & sea horses
- Gather research data while snorkeling, diving, riding, guiding, volunteering
- Develop public speaking skills; create & present public art exhibit

Benefits:

- Earn interdisciplinary academic school credit from a 501(c)3 organization
- Gain life transforming professional experience with real-world impact
- Explore career paths. Expand resume & job recommendations from non-profit education organization and esteemed business partnerships
- Stipend $1,200. 12-week position. Assistance locating housing available.

Qualifications:

- Open to graduate, undergrad, recent graduates in equine-related majors
- Hands-on experience & coursework in equine studies or animal sciences
- Experience in veterinary tech or informal science education preferred
- Flexible schedule including mornings, weekends, and holidays
- Physically fit with ability to lift 50 lbs, hike for extended duration, swim

How to Apply:

- Submit cover letter & resume to seavibefoundation@gmail.com with subject line: Marinequine Internship Application + your name
- Applications due April 28, 2025; Announcement May 14, 2025
- Start Date: June 24, 2025 (negotiable)

Questions?

seavibefoundation@gmail.com